Cormier Offers New Plan To Save Trees And Some Gravel

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Yvon Cormier, developer of the Andover Country Club subdivision, has proposed a new plan to save a hill and "an awful lot of trees" in section two of the 360-acre development, thus reducing the amount of gravel to be excavated from the site.

His plans, however, call for an easement through town-owned land — which may prove somewhat difficult to acquire — and met with only a lukewarm reception from the selectmen Monday night.

Representing Cormier, engineer Arthur Fosse of Dana F. Perkins Associates said the developer could avoid cutting into the hill and cutting down the trees in section two, off Canterbury Street, by running a sewer connection line around the hill, instead of through it.

But that plan would mean running the sewer line through town-owned land behind Canterbury Street, in the Hussey's Pond area. It is not yet clear whether that land is under the care of the town's conservation commission.

If the land is controlled by the conservation commission, it could fall to the state legislature to grant Cormier an easement through the property. Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said this possibility would be "not a major hurdle, but a time problem" for the developer.

However, if the land is not controlled by the conservation commission, town meeting would have to authorize the easement; therefore the easement probably would not be granted until next spring "no matter what," Selectman Chairman James Abramson pointed out.

The proposed changes in Cormier's plans would not require changes in the special gravel removal permit the selectmen recently granted the developer, said Clark.

"The developer would perhaps be removing less earth material than you have authorized in your permit," explained Clark, "and that would not effect the regulatory conditions of the permit."

The permit, which sets more than 30 restrictions on Cormier, allows the removal of approximately 477,000 cubic yards of gravel from section one of the seven-section development, eventually to include more than 270 houses.

Director of Public Works Robert McQuade told the selectmen the new plan would work technically, calling it "a feasible alternative to consider. It would eliminate a lot of cutting and filling in section two," he said.

Cormier developed the new plan because the selectmen and abutters expressed opposition to gravel removal from the site during several public hearings on the permit, Fosse said.

"There were a lot of hard feelings here," he explained, "and the last thing Yvon wants is problems with anybody — certainly not the town fathers. Yvon's business is not gravel removal. He's a home-builder, and that's a fact," Fosse added.

Added Cormier, "If the town feels you have a better way to do it, fine. That's why I'm here."

Selectman Edward Harris said he believed the plan to save the hill was a good idea: "If he can work out the details so that he ends up hauling less gravel out of there, it's all right with me."

Selectmen Norma Gammon and Gerry Silverman agreed that the plan would "benefit the town" if it reduced the amount of gravel to be removed.

Gammon, however, maintained that Cormier should also agree to save a large ridge located in section one behind Lowell Street, the center of many abutters' concerns with noise, vibrations and blowing sand caused by construction.

"If you are now concerned about satisfy-

Vandals Strike Girl Scout Camp

Vandals were apparently scared away from Girl Scout Camp Merry Meeting early Monday evening, but not until they had stolen or destroyed some $100 worth of archery equipment and caused an untold amount of other malicious damage.

A leader returning to the camp off Abbot Street about 7 o'clock found the place in disarray. Vandals had already emptied fire extinguishers inside some of the structures, broken windows and locks, and gotten into the archery equipment. They had shot arrows around, imbedding some of them in the roofs.

In addition, a boat horn was stolen and a dock was upended off its mooring.

Food was also thrown around one of the buildings. An open, but full jar of honey supported the theory that the vandals had been interrupted.

Camp Director Jo-Anne Scharmer said she had the funny feeling the culprits were waiting for them to close down the day camp at 4 o'clock.

She said that while caretakers live on the property, the vandals could have come and gone by the Pumps Pond beach and not been seen.

She said her biggest concern is that the Girl Scout program is non-profit, "so we don't have a lot of money to be replacing everything."

Perhaps if the public was aware of the extent of the vandalism problem, she said, some progress could be made toward solving it.

She said the scouts pitched in on clean-up Tuesday morning when they arrived for the day.

"It was really a mess," she said, adding

Clerical Error Costs Us

Thanks to a state clerical error in the cherry sheet figures released last week, Andover taxpayers can next year look forward to a 95-cent increase over last year's tax rate, rather than the 50-cent increase previously announced.

The cherry sheet figures, which show the estimated funds to be received from the state, now show a total loss of revenues to the town of $257,154, rather than $139,500, Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark told selectmen Monday night.

The increased tax rate can be attributed to increased state and county assessments, as well as a reduction in shared revenues from the state, Clark said.

The town manager noted that while the state government "is talking about reducing property taxes, at the same time it is contributing significantly to increased taxes" in Andover.

We Won, But Will We Benefit

A recent decision of the state Appellate Tax Board should increase direct state aid to Andover by approximately $98,000 a year for the next five years, the town manager told the selectmen Monday night. But it is doubtful whether the town will ever see those increased revenues, he added.

The town Board of Assessors brought the state before the Appellate Tax Board to dispute the state's valuation of Harold Parker State Forest, appraised at $1,298,000. The state determines a new valuation for forest land every five years.

In its decision, handed down June 27, the tax board found in favor of the town, nearly doubling the appraised value of the forest land. The valuation was increased by $1,284,000, for a new total of $2,582,000.

Although Assessor William Russell said he was pleased with the decision, Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark is not convinced the state will actually pay the town the increased revenues: "The state does not always pay its bills," he told the selectmen.

Land Auction Delayed Three Weeks

Public auction of two small parcels of town-owned land off Essex Street, originally scheduled for today, will be delayed for three weeks to allow area businesses to explore their interest in the land, the town manager told the selectmen Monday night.

The selectmen recently approved sale of the land, which adjoins Dundee Industrial Park. Selectmen Chairman James Abramson would like to buy the land to expand his business, Capital Distributing Co.

Industries in Dundee Industrial Park asked Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark to delay the public auction so they could have time to consider their interest in the site, said Clark.

As conditions of the sale, the selectmen have stipulated that the town will reserve a 10-foot wide strip of land along Essex Street to allow possible future traffic improvements, as well as an easement to the industrial park.

Town Aids Neighbors With Water

Andover has been giving a helping hand to surrounding towns having problems with their groundwater supplies by selling water to those communities, the town manager told selectmen Monday night.

Between July 16, 1979 and June 18, 1980, the town has sold 228,000 gallons of water to Tewksbury at the rate of $1.02 per cubic foot, for a total of $310.08, said Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark.

Wilmington bought a 48-hour emergency supply of water from the town on June 25, Clark said. North Reading and Tewksbury have purchased water from Andover in recent weeks as well, he added.

Carillon Recital Tuesday

The third in the current series of six summer carillon recitals on the 37-bell Samuel Lester Fuller carillon in Memorial Tower, Phillips Academy, will be given on Tuesday evening, July 15 at 7 p.m. The recitalist will be Sally Slade Warner, Phillips Academy carillonneur.

Miss Warner studied organ and church music at the New England Conservatory, and is Director of Music at the Church of St. John the Evangelist on Boston's Beacon Hill. Her carillon study began in 1974 with Earl Chamberlain at St. Stephen's Church in Cohasset, and continued with Piet van den Broek at the Royal Carillon School "Jef Denyn" in Mechelen, Belgium, where she received the final diploma with great distinction in June, 1979. She is Chairman of the Public Relations Committee and a Carillonneur Member of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America. Miss Warner has given recitals in the United States, Canada, Belgium and Holland. This summer she will play in New York state, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Washington D.C., Virginia and Michigan, as well as in Massachusetts.

Pomps Pond Fun Day Wednesday

The first of two annual "Fun Days" at Pomps Pond will be held on Wednesday afternoon July 16. Events for children of various ages will begin at about 1:30 p.m. For further information, individuals can pick up a flyer at their local playground, Pomps Pond bathhouse or the Department of Community Services office.

Hearing

On Tuesday evening, July 15, the Greater Lawrence Council for Children will hold a public hearing on their Annual Needs Assessment. This year the council looked at protective service needs of the Greater Lawrence Area. These needs were documented to insure that our children and their families are given the best possible resources.

The July 15, hearing will be between 6:30 and 8 p.m. at the Lawrence Public Library, Sargent Auditorium. Both written and oral testimony to be included in the final needs assessment report will be received. Written testimony about Protective Service Needs can be submitted to: Lawrence Council for Children, 10 Amesbury Street, Lawrence, Ma. 01840 before July 15, 1980.

ing Andover's concerns, why not save that ridge?" asked Gammon, the only selectman who voted against granting the gravel removal permit. "You might have lost some house lots, but you would have saved the ridge. Lectmen should be shown a comprehensive description of how the new plan would effect all sections of the development, rather than just section two.

She added that more land and trees could perhaps be saved if Cormier chose to use a subsurface disposal system in the development, rather than tie into the town's sewer lines. "A lot of your problems with disrupting the land are caused by the sewer," Poore said.

Cormier replied that using the town that Tuesday also happened to be the day the new board was coming for a tour of the camp.

Mrs. Scharmer said they also discovered Tuesday morning that a campfire had been set during the night, with firewood the campers had collected. But, she said, it was put out very nicely with the fire buckets at hand, leading them to suspect the fire was built by a second group of youths later on Monday night.

She said that in talking to the Lawrence firm that will recharge the fire extinguishers, she discovered that a school in Lawrence had suffered the same kinds of damage Monday night. She said they didn't know if it could be the same group or just a coincidence.

As of yesterday afternoon, Andover Police had no leads in the case.

Penny Shortage

Officials at the Massachusetts Bankers Association would like to urge all citizens to redeem their pennies at their banks in order to relieve spot shortages of the coin in certain areas of New England. In fact, this shortage is not limited to this area, but is a nationwide phenomenon.

Generally you don't have to count the pennies, or even separate the various denominations, as most banks have coin counting machines which can be used for this purpose. However, it might be wise to call your bank in advance to avoid any delay should they not have a mechanical counter available.

Although most of the missing pennies are in piggy banks, there are others who are hoarding the coins in hopes of melting them down for quick profit. Based on the current prices (6-30-80) for copper (95%) and zinc (5%), a penny contains about $.006 worth of metal. The prices of these metals would have to increase by 2/3 just to meet the value of metal in the coin, and this doesn't take into account the energy required to melt the coins or to separate the zinc and copper. As a result, hoarding cents for profit under these circumstances is an unproductive financial venture.

sewer was "always better," while Fosse added that building septic systems would require cutting down "twice as many trees."

"I disagree violently," Poore answered. Chairman Abramson told the developer he believed the majority of the board "has given you some encouragement tonight to pursue this. But," he added, "we have pointed out that there could be some problems, too."

"You have to convince the town boards that this plan is in the best interests of the town — that's your job," Abramson said. "I realize you have to be somewhat flexible. But I suggest you get your gameplan together and stick with it. I don't want you to come back here six months from now and tell us you've found a better way, or I'm going to get very suspicious."

The town manager reminded the selectmen that Cormier had developed the alternative plan "to accommodate some of the concerns of this board. As we have worked on this development over the past year, we have seen a series of plan revisions that have tried to answer the concerns of the abutters, the Planning Board, and this board."

The property owner has a right to develop his property as he wishes, under the town's rules and regulations, Clark added.

Fosse said the developer plans to submit definitive plans for sections two and four to the planning board "very shortly."

Also present during the discussion were Director of Community Development and Planning Rhys Kear, and Planning Board member Frank McBride.

Special Nursery Licensed

Lawrence General Hospital's (LGH) Paul F. Donahue Special Care Nursery recently received state licensure from the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. The nursery is one of 12 licensed special care nurseries in the state and is the only one in the Merrimack Valley.

"This designation means the state has formally recognized our special care nursery," says Gerard J. Foley, LGH assistant director. "The special care nursery staff will continue to provide the same high quality care for newborns who require special medical procedures," Foley says.

Premature births and breathing difficulties after birth are common problems that require special care. Infants born at high risk—those delivered by caesarean sation births and those born to diabetic mothers—are observed in the special care nursery.

According to Dr. Richard A. Katz, LGH chief of pediatrics, the licensure means "the state provides high level care for high risk pregnancies. It also means future expansion can be accomplished more easily."

Physicians and nurses in LGH special care nursery provide sophisticated care, with a smaller ratio of nurses to patients, and equipment such as cardiac monitors and respirators.

In addition, families can remain closer to their newborns, since they don't have to be transferred to another hospital for proper care.

Adhering to state regulation, LGH and Massachusetts General Hospital have agreed to participate in a liaison program.

The LGH special care nursery was dedicated in the memory of Dr. Paul F. Donahue in April. As chief of pediatrics, Dr. Donahue was instrumental in the initial steps of acquiring state licensure for LGH's special care nursery.

Massachusetts hospitals that have licensed special care nurseries are: Beth Israel, Massachusetts General, Boston city, Children's Affiliated Hospitals Center-Boston for Wopmen Division, and New England Medical Center, in Boston; and St. Margaret's Hospital, Dorchester; St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford; The Memorial Hospital, Worcester; Bay State Medical Center, Wesson Women's Division, Springfield; Framingham Union Hospital, Framingham.

Awards Presented West Students

West Elementary School student Allison S. Reghitto was presented the Lillian F. Winn Memorial Award for citizenship and academic achievement during a recent sixth-grade award program at the school.

Perfect Attendance Awards were received by Philip Boulanger, Lisa Haley, Matthew Hampl, Nicholas Lembo, Jr., Meredith McCracken, Kimber McGinley, Brian Norris, James Sullivan, Todd Swift, Karin Travers, and James Whitehouse.

Six students received Science Awards: For the most original project, an award went to Elizabeth Pastor; for the best use of visual display, to Kimber McGinley; for most interesting project, to Garth McMurray and Kenton Parker; and for best use of scientific process, to Karin Travers and Warren Crossfield.

Evelyn Retelle was presented the Aides' Award.

Naomi Gendler was the Spelling Bee

Winner.

During the awards ceremony, Mrs. Judy Reghitto, P.T.O. Awards Day Chairperson, presented the class gift to Principal A. E. Frulla.

The sixth-graders sang three selections, "Battle Hymn of the Republic", "The Way We Were," and "Tomorrow", accompanied by Miss Patricia Gabriel.

On Dean's List

David C. Welber, 17 Barrington Drive, Andover, has been named to the Dean's List at Bucknell University for the second semester.

Our Plan gives you faster interest.

It's called the Direct Deposit Plan.

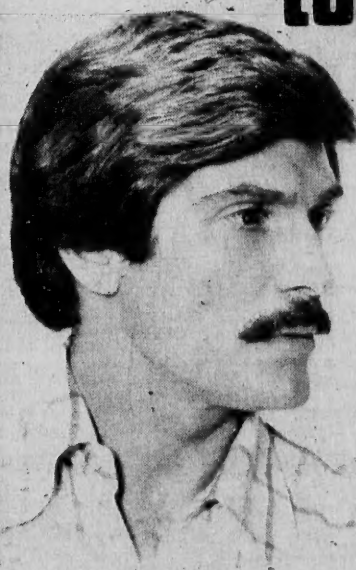

It allows any checks you regularly receive to be sent directly from the sender to your N.O.W. account. With no stops in-between. Not even to you. And each transaction is recorded on your monthly statement. Our Plan means your Social Security, Treasury Department, pension or payroll checks, insurance or retirement proceeds, stock dividends or any other checks get to us faster. And the faster your money earns interest, the more money you earn. All you do is sign one authorization form for each sender. From then on your checks are deposited directly into your N.O.W. account. Non-stop. Our plan pulls out all the stops to give you better banking.

Awarded Citation At Dartmouth

A Dartmouth College freshman from Andover has been cited by a Professor of Native American Studies for outstanding academic achievement during the past term.

Martha L. Viehmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Viehmann of 35 Lucerne Drive, is a recent graduate of Phillips Academy. In citing Miss Viehmann, her professor noted that she "is a scholar whose integrity is reflected in the radical honesty with which she approaches her work."

Miss Viehmann was a member of the Social Functions Committee and the Church Youth Group at her high school.

Citation winners are quite unusual among the 4,000 undergraduates on the Dartmouth campus, as members of the faculty are invited to submit Citation Reports only when a student's work is sufficiently distinguished to merit special recognition. Such citations are rare, and relatively few are submitted each term.

Dartmouth is the ninth oldest college in the nation and the northernmost of the Ivy League group.

Received Scholarships

Three Andover High school graduates were recipients of $500 Andover Servicemen's Fund Scholarships at commencement exercises.

The scholarships are presented to the children of Andover servicemen who entered the armed forces from Andover.

Receiving awards this year were, Heidi Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Anderson, 106 Ballardvale Road, who will attend Vermont College; Mary Cronin, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Cronin, 5 Cyr Circle, who will enter the University of Miami and Elaine Crossley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Crossley, 35 Rocky Hill Road, planning to attend the University of Massachusetts.

On Dean's List

Natalie Ann Gardner, daughter of Robert Gardner, 8 Tanglewood Way North, Andover, has been named to the Dean's List of Georgia Tech for the spring quarter.

mond Berube, David Curtis, Susan Levesque, Katy Morgan and Debbie Jannetti.

Best Effort in Physical Education: Brett Yannalfo

Best Effort in Swimming Program: Shelley Rucker, and Tina Colby

Best Effort in Reading: Jennifer Johnson

Art Work: Andrea Booth

Outstanding Swimmer: Tracy Costello
The 1980 Shawsheen School All-Star softball team played the Shawsheen School Faculty in a traditional game. The players for the sixth grade were Earl Abdoo, Jimmy Baxter, Raymond Berube, Kristine Buchanan, Debbie Cookson, Tom DeLeire, Liz Erban, Billy Gallant, Leo Gravell, George Heseltine, Gary Joiner, Leigh LeGendre, Philip Stocking, Beth Siudut, and John Todd.

The faculty team lost the game by a score of 10-7.

The Association of Elementary School

Aides gave an award in each elementary school to the students who showed courtesy, cooperation, and helpfulness all during the year.

The recipient at Shawsheen School was Leigh LeGendre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent LeGendre of 4 Bowdoin Road.

West Students Get Taste Of Environment On Cape

"Every week in school should be like this!"

This remark by one of the 36 students from Andover West Junior High School returning from Cape Cod summed up the entire group's feeling. These students under the leadership of Lestor Taylor, Brian Staples and Jay Darrin, had just finished a week on Cape Cod as part of Project AWARE (Andover West Activities in Recreational and Environmental Education).

The program used the Cape Cod National Seashore as an outdoor classroom. Students spent part of each day exploring a different section of the seashore. In addition, guest speakers and park rangers gave presentations that added local "flavor" to the program.

Each day students completed environmental studies that required them to use English, Math, Science and geography skills. A great deal of learning also came from the community living experience. Each student has a job to complete daily, such as helping prepare meals or washing dishes. Since they stayed at an unstaffed camp, the group had to be self-sufficient. Everyone had to help to make sure meals were ready on time, etc.

Each day was active and had its own highlights. On Monday, most of the students rated their "blind" experience on the Button Bush Trail as the top event. Students were blindfolded and then they followed a special trail set up for blind people. Most were surprised by how much they could learn using their other senses. Amy Skinder summed up the feeling of many. "It was scary, but I gradually began to rely on my hearing and touch to get around."

Tuesday's highlight was walking through the salt marsh. While wading through the marsh, students got a real

"feel" for the web of life in the marsh. Kindra Markey for one will "never forget the feeling" in the marsh.

Wednesday's highlights included the Atlantic Cedar Swamp Trail and the Bar-B-Cue at night. Following a study of the plant communities on the trail, each group was tested on what they had studied. Jeff Kennedy was "surprised by how much I learned." Staples cooking and Marrin and Taylor's singing were the hit of the Bar-B-Cue. Michell Frank, Lauren Quinlan and the rest of Cabin 1, presented an original song.

After a cold morning exploring the tidal pools at Skaket Beach on Thursday, the group returned to the camp for the Laugh Olympics. Mr. Darrin directed a series of unusual races including backward pyramids and underwater wheelbarrow races. Among the competitors were Ann Plamondon, Judi Potvin, Tim Meehl and Chris Anserio.

Friday was highlighted by our bike ride in the dunes and Ranger Perry's presentation on fishing. Everyone was captivated by Ranger Perry's Yankee accent and manner. The bike ride was tiring, but everyone saved enough energy to dray their teachers down the dunes. Before returning to Andover, all enjoyed a seafood dinner together at Baxter's.

The comforts of home were appreciated by all upon return, but everyone agreed that it had been a very exciting and enjoyable experience. The campers particularly appreciated the efforts of their high school counselors Kevin Donnelly, John Brechenridge, Michele Gildea, Karen Bourdelais, and Robin West. This group of Project AWARE graduates were a tremendous addition to a great week.

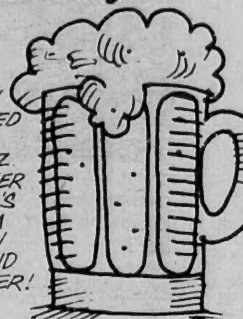

Among the winners of the post-trip awards, as voted by their fellow students were: Ourdoorsman of the Week — Amy Skinder; Most Enthusiastic — Nancy Butler; Most Cooperative — Christine Hashem; Most Conscientious — Anne Abele.

All 36 students received a certificate of participation for successfully completing the one week program.

This and That about Here and There

When vacationing during the summer... remember to have your lawn mowed and your papers stepped... You don't want the world to know you're away.

A friendly neighbor might check from time to time, removing flyers and advertisements which might be left on door-step or hallway. Have post office hold your mail, and do notify police.

Knowing travelers set their lights at home on timers... but did you know VARIABLE timers are the best?... They are set to go on and off at different times. Does your garage at home have windows?... Cover them and anyone looking in won't know whether you're home or not... No sense making things easy for a potential burglar.

DON'T FORGET TO LOCK YOUR GARAGE DOORS... especially if they're an integral part of your home... Leaving them open makes access so much easier.

Can't decide where to go on your vacation? Perhaps Colpitts' 60-page vacation Idea Book might help. Also, our summer cruise booklet, listing cruises of all lines in departure-date order. For your copy, phone, write or come in.

Reports From Playgrounds

South Playground

Well, we've just finished our second week of Super South, and what a busy week it was. On Monday we all worked on our Super South banner and practiced for the 4 Square tournament. Monday was also highlighted by a visit from Doherty and Ballardvale playgrounders. On Tuesday, many went on a wet bike trip to the Rose Glen Dairy, while the rest stayed to make collages while munching on popcorn and punch. We tie-dyed t-shirts on Wednesday; Peggy left the playground with part of her arm dyed red. It was also the day for the 4 Square competition. First place was secured by Sharon Chen, followed by Michele Gorten, Joanna Li, Michele Toth, and Jennifer Ward. A sprinkler party and cookout closed out the week on Thursday as the playground was closed on Friday for the July 4th celebration in Central Park.

West Elementary

West began the second week on a rainy note. We spent a lot of time in the gym playing Crab Soccer, the new favorite indoor game at West. Tuesday, we made our 4th of July mural on the sidewalk and we drew patriotic pictures to add some holiday spirit to our playground. Wednesday, we made push-pin crafts, played soccer, and held a playground clean-up to keep our school in tip-top shape. Thursday we held our pre-fourth of July celebration. Everyone dressed in red, white and blue to show their patriotic spirit. We held relay races and water balloon fights. We ended the day with a big pre-fourth of July cookout. Everyone had a super day. Friday playground was closed and all the staff enjoyed the day working at the Town celebration.

Shawsheen Playground

The first week of playground at Shawsheen ended with a weenie roast, and toasted marshmallows. We also learned how to have human cockfights on Friday along with how to play "Skin the Snake," and we figured out what the best line-ups were for a game of "Red Rover."

Monday was our first rainy day which sent us inside the school for the morning. "Bombardment" was the first order of events; Kristen Alberich was the only one to last the entire game without getting hit out. While Nathan Walker, Kari Golec, and Marcus Deloach crayed in the cafeteria, Aimee Ross, Chris Harding, Peter Cookson, Chip Redding and many others tried their luck at "Chuck a Farthing." "Fleece Ball" also made the rainy Monday fun with Penny Starks, Sean Ross, Mike Mercier, and leader Patti MacParland trying their talent at bat.

Even though the sun didn't shine until noontime, Tuesday was a glowing day. "Bird, Beat and Fish" started our minds churning with Glenn DiBendetto playing captain. Thanks to Suzie Levesque helping many little hands work with gimp, the playground was infested with gimp bugs by midmorning; the decorative pins are better than mosquitoes any day. "Skin the Snake" a slick gamer, was a big success. A short but sweet kickball game took place behind the school. Jamie Carew gave an outstanding performance as pitcher, leading his team to victory, 9-6.

Even though Wednesday was rainy, the playground was busy. More people showed up today than any other day. It was a big arts and crafts day at Shawsheen; we made stained glass bottles with tissue paper. Some of the more notable artists were Steve Trussell, Bobbie and Melanie Gallagher, Gayle Grasso, and Anna O'Day. Our supply box was a blah brown so we decided to spruce it up by painting it with pastels; Ian O'Neal, Aimee Ross, and Penny Starks managed to get most of the paint on the box.

Sanborn Playground

Week number two at Sanborn started out rather soggy, but we managed to still have fun. We had a lot of fun making a favorite craft, pompom people. Some of our better pompoms were created by Jen Scanlon, Mandy Gulezian, and Kerri Mazonson. We also started painting our fourth of July flay. Tuesday we made birthday bonnets and caterpillars out of egg cartons. We also made patriotic pinwheels. Some of our artists include Mary Frances Bishop and Maria Dukas. Wednesday was another rainy day, but we had a lot of fun in the gym. We played a number of games, including relay races. Chris Workman, Richard Atkinson, Jennifer Anderson and Craig DerAnanian were some of our sportsmen.

Thursday we had a Fourth of July birthday party. Cara Workman, Andrea Georgian, Eddie Brylczyk, Karen Brylczyk, Kerri Flaherty, Beth Cronin and Alex

Webb were very helpful in making decorations and setting up. We played a number of games, including bobbing for apples. Some of our bobbers included Mindy Carnes, Kim Anderson, Nicholas Grant, and Andy Grant. We also had a fabulous donut eating contest. Richard Atkinson, Brian Workman, Lisa Horgan, Brenna Cronin and Stephanie Kuo were some of our participants. We ended the Monday started on a wet note, but the kids still wanted to go on their 5 mile bike trip. Pedaling on their way were Russell LaMontagne, Canty and Melissa Kirkles, Amy Modday, Andy and Matt McManus, Matt MacVicar, Tommy Cioffe, Dan Baril, Paul Juliano and Eric Williams.

Doherty

Those remaining had a grand time playing parachute games such as Jaws and Cat/Mouse.

Doherty Finally got their gym back, bombardment caught on very quickly. The big gunners were Matt McManus, Robby Carpenter, Barry Connors, Robert Manning, Jeff Manning, Erin Fuller, Kristen Biegel, George, Tony, and Tommy Cioffi.

Specialists started this week and we were treated to many delicacies. Cookies, raisen-peanut butter-celery sticks and other munchies were made by Dennis Wright, John Ruel, Emily Trespas, Sharon Campagnn.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

This afternoon at 2 o'clock at The Haven, the National Park Service will be presenting slide show of the new national park in Lowell. And they will also be giving the details of a trip next Thursday, the 17th, to visit the site. What has been done with the old mills and the canals is exciting and fascinating. You'll not want to miss it. If you cannot get to the Haven this afternoon, telephone them for information on how you can be included in the visit to Lowell next Thursday. The phone number is new now — 470-0870.

The summer newsletter is now out at the banks, library and super markets and you'll want to get a copy because in it is a questionnaire. The people at the center hope you will take the time to fill it out so that as they plan the fall and winter classes and activities they will be able to take into consideration what you like best. Look for a copy and fill it out promptly.

Next Monday's movie is a dom DeLouise — Mel Brooks comedy entitled 'The Twelve Chairs.' It starts at 2 o'clock at The Haven.

There is still room for you on the trip to Martha's vineyard July 21. Since information on this trip was first published there has been a price change due to fuel costs. It will cost $29 for the day instead of $28. But for that $29 you have your bus trip, a box lunch, the delightful ferry trip to the Island, a tour and a full course meal. Sign up before it is too late.

A shorter, more local trip is planned for July 31, to Salem, Mass. and the Pickering Warf. The bus will leave Andover about 9:30 and be back by 4, and will cost $4 for transportation. Any other costs will be those you choose to incur. You may have lunch wherever you will and browse at leisure through this lovely restored historical area. Sign up at The Haven.

July 15, Billy King and his orchestra will perform at The Haven at 7 p.m. He'll be playing your favorite pop tunes. If you need a ride you may call The Haven and arrangements have been made for the van to provide transportation. It will cost 25¢ each way. Come have a delightful musical evening.

There are still tickets at The Haven for Pearl Bailey's performance at North Shore Theatre Saturday, Aug. 2. $12.50 covers transportation, luncheon, a fashion show and the matinee performance. Tickets are limited so don't delay.

Development

Development on barrier islands has taken 243,000 acres. Another 739,000 acres are unprotected from development. These islands are being destroyed at twice the rate of other land in the nation, Massachusetts Audubon says. The government has aided construction with grants, loans, and permits.

Caring Comes Home...

for the elderly, the recuperative, the handicapped, Kelly Health Care can be the loving alternative to confinement in an institution.

How Kelly
Health Care helps people lead fuller, more satisfying lives

In-home patient care:

Individually designed to your needs — including your Vacation
Time — Planned for practicality, responsive to changes.

Many families dread the day when an aging parent may need to enter a care facility. Others worry about meeting the special needs of a handicapped person. Still others are deeply concerned about being unable to bring a recuperating patient home from the hospital because they lack the skills and the time for proper care.

For each, Kelly Health Care is a realistic alternative. Skilled, compassionate care in the familiar surroundings of the patient's own home. Carefully planned and physician-coordinated nursing to supplement the patient's abilities. Instead of institutionalization, many are able to resume or continue the satisfactions of independence with our assistance.

Kelly Health Care, the national nursing subsidiary of Kelly Services, specializes in bringing care to your home. Thoughtful planning of each in-home assignment by our Nursing Supervisor, a Registered Nurse, assures the right kind, the right amount of care for each patient.

A Registered Nurse (RN) provides maximum professional care. On physician's orders, a RN may administer medication and treatments. A Licensed Practical Nurse (LVN) cares for the patient and patient-care equipment. She may administer less complicated medication and treatments.

A Home Health Aide assists with personal care, prepares nutritious meals and special diets, helps the patient use such equipment as wheelchair and walker. An Aide can accompany a patient on trips to the doctor or on outside exercise walks.

A Homemaker's task is to allow continued living at home by providing light housekeeping and simple health care. She'll help with shopping, meals and other duties.

Whoever is the right Kelly Health Care person for your in-home patient, you can be certain of both skills and genuine, warm concern. Each of our employees is meticulously chosen, has excellent references, and is personally responsible to our Nursing Supervisor. Each is, of course, insured and bonded. No standards of professional and personal excellence are higher than ours.

Kelly Health Care is easy to arrange, even on short notice. We are at your service 24 hours a day, every day. Care can be arranged for around-the-clock, days, nights — or intermittently, as needed. And, because we are sensitive to change in a patient's needs, we can recommend modifications of the care plan as required.

Kelly Health Care charges for nursing services according to the hours actually spent in care, at rates we'll be pleased to provide. A simple weekly invoice covers everything; taxes, insurance, withholding and social security payments are all made by us, so there's no paperwork burden on the patient or family. You may wish to ask your insurance broker about possible coverage of our services under health insurance. Your physician can advise you on the best use of Kelly Health Care in your individual situation.

When you need help caring for someone you love, someone to share your concern, count on Kelly Health Care. A telephone call to the number below will bring full details and, if you wish, prompt help.

Wentworth

Julia Morse

James C. Wetterberg

Three Andover residents were among 632 students to graduate at the 68th annual commencement exercises of Wentworth Institute of Technology, Boston, last month.

The graduates were Julie Morse of Phillips St., and Steven J. Wilkins of 128 Main St., who both earned associates in applied science degrees in building construction technology; and James C. Wetterberg of 85 Lowell St., who earned an associate in engineering degree in architectural engineering technology.

The first honorary degree awarded in the 75-year history of Wentworth was conferred on former Governor John A. Volpe, a Wentworth graduate and former trustee. Volpe, who graduated from Wentworth 50 years ago, was also the commencement speaker.

JULY 10, 1980

In Concert Wednesday

The "Continental Singers and Orchestra," currently on their yearly 75 day summer tour, will present a live 90-minute concert of contemporary Christian music on Wednesday, July 16 at 7:30 at the South Church in Andover. Their performance includes contemporary gospel music, spirituals, anthems, and hymn arrangements. This year's program, entitled "...And There Was Light" will feature selections from a new youth musical by Cam Floria and Jeff Kennedy by the same title. Also included will be medleys of favorite praise songs as well as contemporary gospel songs like "Jehoshaphat's Song" by Don Francisco and Dallas Holm's "Rise Again" and great standards such as "How Great Thou Art".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Slade, now of Cranbury, N.H., while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Lee of East Windsor.

The 4 o'clock candlelight service at the First Methodist Church in Hightstown was conducted by the Rev. John Bowring of that church, and by the Rev. Kirk A. Orr of the Middlesex Presbyterian Church, Middlesex, N.J.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by her sister, Carolyn A. Slade of Cranbury, as maid of honor, and by Sharon Grabarek of Hamilton Square, N.J., and Mrs. Valerie Vanisko of Mercerville, N.J.

Terry Lee was his brother's best man, and ushers included Mike Thomas of Trenton, N.J., and Tony Grueninger of Milwaukee, Wisc., a cousin of the groom.

Andy Slade, the bride's brother, was junior usher and presided over the guest book.

A reception followed in the Garden Room of the Forsgate Country Club and the couple took a wedding trip to Las Vegas and Hawaii. They'll be making their home in Cranbury.

The new Mrs. Lee, is a 1976 graduate of Andover High School, is employed by Bamberger's at the Quaker Bridge Mall. Her husband graduated from Mercer County Community College in 1977 and from Cook College at Rutgers University in 1979. He's employed by Inco Systems Inc., in Neptune, N.J.

Block Parties Approved

A block party will be held on Cross Street, between River Road and Monahan Lane, on August 23, with the selectmen's approval.

The selectmen Monday night also confirmed the town manager's approval of a block party held July 5 on Countryside Way.

Approval was granted with the stipulation that satisfactory arrangements be made with the Police Department.

Awards Given Pianists

Two young students of Andover piano teacher Gladys Barnet were recently presented awards for good attendance.

Diane Bogusz, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bogusz of 4 Abbot Bridge Road, received an award as the young lady with the best attendance. She has now received the attendance award for five consecutive years. Jeffrey Stafford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Stafford of 37 Lowell St.,

received an award as the young man with the best attendance at piano lessons.

Children's Programs

Salem's Essex Institute, 132 Essex St., is offering several programs for children this summer. A feature-length color cartoon, Uncle Sam Magoo, will be shown on Wednesday, July 23 at 2 pm. In the film, Mr. Magoo traces the story of the United States from the Norsemen and Columbus to Paul Revere, Johnny Appleseed, and Teddy Roosevelt, ending with Mr. Magoo on the moon.

A series of crafts workshops for boys and girls grades 3-6 will be offered on Tuesday afternoons from 2-3:30. Children may come to one or more but space is limited. The workshops are silhouette-making, July 29; weaving, Aug. 5; and patchwork, Aug. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Ferro

Ferro-McHale

At home in Haverhill, are Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Ferro, who were married June 21 at St. Robert Bellarmine Church in Andover.

The bride is the former Patricia Ann McHale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. McHale, 30 Wild Rose Drive, Andover. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ferro of Malden.

The Rev. Fredrick Collins of Andover and the Rev. Angelo Loscocco of Somerville officiated at the 2:30 ceremony. Gloria Lyons provided vocal music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long-sleeved chiffon gown with Queen Ann neckline, trimmed with daisies and lace. She wore a long veil trimmed with lace, and carried a bouquet of daisies, poms, roses, larkspur and blue baby's breath.

Wendi Dart of Waltham attended as her maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Susan Aiello of Worcester, Rose Ann Liggiero of Revere and Robin Froburg of Methuen. They wore sleeveless, A-line gowns in blue, trimmed with lace, and blue picture hats, and carried bouquets of white daisies, blue baby's breath and poms.

Lynn Salava of Andover was junior bridesmaid, wearing a blue gown with ruffled cape, and Leanne Ferro of Melrose was flower girl, wearing a yellow gown and carrying a basket of flowers.

Mrs. McHale chose a mint green gown with long green jacket for her daughter's wedding, and wore a wrist corsage. The groom's mother wore a gree, A-line dress with sheer cape, and a wrist corsage.

Joseph Ferro of Melrose was best man, and ushers included James McHale of Woburn, Damian Torridi of Revere and Steven Stein of Hull. Kevin Salava of Andover was junior usher and Joseph Ferro of Melrose, ring bearer.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Pelham Inn, with music provided by Al Graceffa's band. The couple took a wedding trip to Florida.

The new Mrs. Ferro received her B.S. degree in elementary education from Salem State College, and is employed by the Internal Revenue Service and T. J. Maxx. Her husband received his B.S. in business administration from Salem State, and is an accountant at VanLeer in Woburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Byrne

Byrne-Lamb

At home in Connecticut, are Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Byrne, who were married June 21 in the chapel at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The bride is the former Carol W. Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot S. Lamb of Ridgewood, N.J., formerly of Andover. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton E. Shulze of Andover, and Mr. Claude Lamb, formerly of Andover.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Valery Byrne of Augusta, Ga., and the late Mr. Byrne.

The Rev. Dennis Doerr officiated at the ceremony in Cambridge, and a reception followed at the Andover Inn.

Mrs. Debra Boyajian attended the bride as matron of honor, and Helen Rodgers, Carol Antonacci and Athena Petropoulos were bridesmaids. Valerie Rodgers was flower girl.

David Rodgers served as best man, while ushers included Michael Byrne, Thomas Byrne and Charles Lamb. Curtis Rodgers was ring bearer.

The couple took a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains.

The new Mrs. Byrne graduated magna cum laude from Boston University, and is an occupational therapist. Her husband, a graduate of MIT, is employed by ITT in Milford, Conn.

Fantasticks Begins Tonight

The department of Community Services, in conjunction with the Andover Community Theatre is sponsoring The Fantasticks, 8 p.m. at the West Elementary Auditorium this evening. The musical will also run this Friday and Saturday night. Tickets are available at the Department of Community Services office, 36 Bartlet St., Andover Savings Bank, Coles Hardware, Thompsons Stationary and Liggetts Drug. Tickets will also be on sale at the door.

The Fantasticks is funded in part by the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities, a state agency whose funds are recommended by the Governor and appropriated by the State Legislature.

Tickets Available In Andover

The Castle Hill Festival in Ipswich has announced that tickets for this year's Castle Hill Festival Concerts are now on sale in Andover at the Andover Bookstore, Old Andover Village.

Now in its eight year, the Castle Hill Festival recreates entertainments from centuries past on five weekends during July and August. This season's opening concert will be "Listen to the Mockingbird," an outdoor celebration of mid-nineteenth century America complete with brass bands, fireworks, and oratory. The program will be performed on Friday and Saturday, July 11 and 12, at 8:30 p.m. "Tales from Boccaccio's Decameron," an unusual Renaissance music/theatre production, will be performed on Sunday, July 13, at 5:30 p.m. Tickets purchased in advance at ticket outlets are discounted.

Further information about the 1980 Castle Hill Festival Concerts may be obtained by calling the Andover Bookstore, or the Festival Office.

Nursery Ends 20th Year

West Parish Nursery School presented a "Spring Spectacular" to parents, grandparents, and friends. The children danced and sang, performed a fingerplay, a songplay, and dramatized a story which pointed out that the biggest isn't necessarily the best.

"That theme is very appropo," said Gail Deranian, chairman of the board for the past year, thanking teachers and parents alike for all the little things, that helped make a year of learning fun. One perfect example was a cake baked by Matthew Morello's mother. Elaine Morello decorated the cake with all of the children's names. Anthony Russo's mother, Jean, handily carved out pieces to match names with children.

A few days later, the annual year-end picnic was held on the green across from West Parish Nursery School. After games and races, the children hunted down surprise bags hidden among trees and shrubs. Besides balloons, popcorn and other treats, they each received tiny treasure boxes donated by Glenda Schaake, Amanda's mother. Painted on the boxes were whimsical characters and their name.

Justin Rosenblatt's mother, Joan, donated drawing scrapbooks for each to express himself in. Snoopy and his pals presented themselves on the pages of a "report card" designed by Elsie Wu, Michael's mother. Issued to each student, the teachers indicated on the cards progress in motor control, intellectual, social and emotional development.

Teachers Audrey DesRoches, Sherry Tupper, and Sue McHendry wished all a happy summer. Thus, the 20th year of West Parish Nursery School ended.

Christ Church Nursery Class

Christ Church Nursery School ended its 11th year with a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul King, High Street, where classmates shared a day of fun together.

Field trips before the end of school, among others, included the Zoo and Bird Sanctuary under the guidance of Mrs. Nor-

At Workshop

Katharine Horne, teacher of social studies at East Jr. High, participated in an intensive workshop for teachers sponsored by the Soviet and East European Language and Area Center of Harvard University. The sessions, which ran from June 23 to June 27, were led by Dr. David E. Powell, Research Fellow at the Russian Research Center, Harvard University. The purpose of the workshop was to bring development in the Soviet Union, as well as sources describing these developments, to the attention of teachers. Participants in the workshop examined major problems confronting the Soviet leadership in the coming decade and tried to assess how the Soviet regime could cope with them. Among the issues discussed were the succession question, the slowdown in Soviet Economic growth, energy development and conservation, demographic trends, the future of detente, Soviet policy in the Middle East, and issues of dissidence in the Soviet Union.

man Viehman, teacher-director and Mrs. Robin Mosley, teacher.

William F. Lucey Sr., 83 Newspaper Executive

William F. Lucey Sr.

William F. Lucey, Sr., 83, of Andover, retired Eagle-Tribune executive, died Saturday at Mary Immaculate Nursing Home, Lawrence where he had been a patient for eight years.

Mr. Lucey, whose efforts were devoted not only to the newspaper industry, but to the Greater Lawrence community as well, was named business manager of the Lawrence Eagle-Tribune and radio station WLAW by Publisher Irving E. Rogers Sr., in 1943. He was assistant to the publisher when he retired in 1970.

During his tenure, Mr. Lucey was known for his sharp business acumen, his courtly manners and, when the situation demanded it, his puckish sense of humor, Mr. Rogers said.

His duties at the Eagle-Tribune ranged from personally selecting toys for the young beneficiaries of the newspaper's Santa Fund to guiding the newspaper through construction and equipping of its new North Andover building.

His specialty was personnel, and it was often during labor negotiations that Mr. Lucey's sense of humor came to light, serving both to ease tense situations and to put accurate perspectives on the issues at hand.

Mr. Lucey frequently conducted seminars at the American Press Institute at Columbia University and often was called upon by other publishers to solve special problems.

He was a director of the Audit Bureau of Circulation for nearly 12 years and was a past president of the New England Daily Newspaper Publishers Association.

In 1971, just after his retirement, Mr. Lucey was honored by the Association for nearly 50 years of service to that group. Speakers at the affair called him "a pro among pros" and "Mr. New England Newspaperman."

Mr. Lucey first started working with the Association in 1921 when he became business manager for the old Worcester Post. In 1931, he became business manager of the Worcester Telegram-Gazette.

Born in Holyoke, Sept. 26, 1896, the son of a granite cutter, Mr. Lucey moved to Worcester at the age of four.

He earned his Northeastern University degree in business administration nights while working 84 hours a week in a Boston & Albany Railroad round house.

Former Eagle-Tribune Editorial Page Editor and present columnist William Heath, who knew Mr. Lucey for 25 years, spoke of the respect newspapermen had for Mr. Lucey.

"I was very close to him," said Heath. "I have found him over the years one of the ablest and wisest newspapermen that I have met in my 60 years in the trade. This is especially true in respect to his financial judgement and appraisal of the problems that continually beset newspapers; problems that naturally change year to year. I always found his advice sound. My observation and experience has been that all newspapermen who had any contact with Mr. Lucey admired him as a man and respected him for his wise newspaper leadership."

In 1958, he was named recipient of the Ralph Wilkinson award, the most prestigious community service award in this area.

The award was presented by former Mayor John J. Buckley, who commented about Mr. Lucey, "although he has been a citizen of the community for only 16 years, he has made more contributions to our people than many who have been here a lifetime."

Mr. Lucey's community works were on behalf of the Greater Lawrence Child Guidance Center, Chamber of Commerce, the Citizen's Committee for Industrial Development, the United Fund, Boys' Club, Mental Health Center and Red Cross.

Mr. Lucey was a devout Catholic and in 1951 Pope Pius XII named him a Knight of Malta, the highest honor which the head of the Church can bestow upon a layman. At the time, fewer than 200 members of the order were living throughout the world.

Mr. Lucey was a parishioner at St. Augustine's Church in Andover and a member of the Holy Name Society. President of the Andover Catholic Club of Boston, Knights of Columbus and a director of the Bon Secours Hospital Guild.

Mr. Lucey was married to the former Grace E. Monahan, who died in 1972.

They had three sons, two of whom followed him into the newspaper business. William F. Lucey Jr. of Andover is presently business manager of the Eagle-Tribune, David T. is vice president of the Meridan (Conn.) Publishing Co., publishers of the Record-Journal, and John R. of Groveland works for Raytheon.

A funeral Mass was celebrated Wednesday at 10 a.m. in St. Augustine's Church. Burial was in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Lawrence General-Bon Secours Joint Hospital Fund.

The program will feature violinist Mary Hess, who is on the faculty of Boston University and the Longy School of Music. Ms. Hess will play music of Saint-Saens, Massenet, and Gypsy Airs by Sarasate. In addition, the program will include music of Bertioz, von Suppe, Duke Ellington, Benjamin Britten and the traditional 1812 Overture of Tchaikovsky, complete with "live" cannons.

Garrett J. Burke, 62 Funeral Director

Garrett J. Burke, 62, 390 North Main St., Andover, a funeral director in the area for more than 40 years, died at his home Saturday following a short illness.

Born in Andover Oct. 28, 1917, he attended Andover schools and was a graduate of the Boston School of Anatomy, Embalming and Funeral Directing. He was a member of St. Augustine's Parish, where he was past president of the Holy Name Society, and belonged to Andover Council 1078, Knights of Columbus.

Mr. Burke was a charter member of Andover Lodge 2198, Elks Club, and belonged to the American Legion, Post 1, Paris, France, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a former member of the Andover Housing Authority and the Andover Democrat Town Committee, co-founder of the Andover Junior Football League and a member of the 100 Club of Massachusetts.

A 30-year member of the Fellowship of AA, he was a veteran of World War II and served in the European Theater. He received European campaign awards and a Purple Heart. Immediately after the war, he returned to Europe as a Department of Defense civilian, coordinating the return of servicemen killed in Europe, as part of the American Graves Registration Corps.

Survivors include his wife, Edwina R. (Baris) Burke; a son, Garry A. Burke of North Andover; a sister, Rita (Burke) Lee of Westboro; brothers, Col. James W. Burke of Merrimack, N.H., and Col. John L. Burke of Andover; several cousins, nieces and nephews.

A funeral Mass was celebrated Tuesday at 10 a.m. in St. Augustine's Church with burial at St. Patrick's Cemetery in Lowell.

Students Spending Summer Abroad

Erin Donahue

Three Andover High classmates are spending the summer abroad, as exchange students in the American Field Service program.

Erin Donahue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Donahue, 118 Bailey Road, is in Padova, Italy ("Padua" in English). She arrived in the university town 25 miles north of Venice after a few days of orientation at Long Island University and again in Rome. She flew from Kennedy International Airport with 235 other AFS'ers, on a plane destined for several stops between Madrid and Kenya.

Lauren Whitley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. PLaul Whitley, 4 Virginia Road, left June 23 for orientation at C.W. Post College and Athens. She's spending the first month with a family in Athens, attending a language school run by her host mother. Then she'll move to Oxilithos, on the Greek Island of Evia.

Bronna Duly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Duly, 181 Lowell St., left before school was out for Ecuador.

Appointed To Zoning Board

The selectmen reappointed two members to the Zoning Board of Appeals Monday night, and interviewed a number of candidates for two vacant positions as associate members on the board.

Board member Richard H. Moody, whose term expired June 30, was reappointed to a three-year term, retroactive to July 1.

Carol C. McDonough was also reappointed to a three-year term, retroactive to July 1, and was promoted from an associate to a regular member of the board.

McDonough's promotion to the position as a regular member filled a vacancy created by the recent death of Robert Levinson. Selectmen Chairman James Abramson remarked that Levinson had served the town and the greater Lawrence community "very well, and he will be sorely missed."

Interviewed for two spots as associate members were candidates Bob Burke, Arthur Feinberg, Alan Gould, Paul Meunier, David Gravalles, Michael Miller and Dennis Powers. Not present were two additional candidates, Ariel W. George and Patricia Khani.

The selectmen plan to appoint the two new members by the end of July or early August, said Abramson.

The Board of Appeals consists of five regular members, who meet monthly, and four associate members. The board is part of the Department of Community Development and Planning.

Also on Monday night, the selectmen confirmed the town manager's reappointment of Russ Moran to the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission.

Sizer Leaving PA In '81

Headmaster Theodore R. Sizer will leave Phillips Academy at the end of the next academic year — his ninth as Andover's headmaster. He then will lead a team of school people and university researchers in a two-year Study of High Schools, now in its planning stage.

Andover's Board of Trustees accepted Sizer's decision to resign in June, 1981, "with a deep feeling of both admiration and regret" at their meeting on July 1. They declared, within a resolution: "You have led this academy with vigor, imagination, eloquence and wisdom to a series of remarkable achievements." In his letter notifying alumni, alumnae, parents and friends, Trustee President Donald H. McLean, said: "The Trustees are deeply pleased that the positive force of Ted Sizer's leadership will be sustained in the coming year," and named Trustee Melville Chapin '36 of Boston as chairman of a search committee for Phillips Academy's 13th headmaster.

Among the achievements that the former dean of the Harvard Graduate School of Education can count in his first eight years as Andover's headmaster are the successful combining of Phillips Academy and neighboring Abbot Academy into a single coeducational school in 1973; Andover's 200th birthday Celebration in 1978, when the Academy also could celebrate balancing the budget while raising scholarships to over one million dollars annually; Abbot Academy's Sesquicentennial Celebration; Andover's $50.6 million Bicentennial Campaign that raised more than $52 million in three and a half years, principally for faculty salaries and student scholarships; the expansion of Andover's student body to 1,200 boys and girls in the academic year and 850 in the Summer Session; and, finally, new records set in Andover admissions applications (3,400 last year) for seven straight years, to make Andover the nation's most sought-after independent secondary school.

Sizer's educational innovations include several 6-10 week residential study programs for high school students, to supplement their public high school programs: the intensive Short Term Institutes during the school year and — within the Summer Session — the Chamber Music Program and (MS)', Math and Science for Minority Students, a sequential three-summer program to help talented public high school students prepare for college careers in science, medicine and engineering.

"My decision rested primarily on two factors," said Sizer. "I am deeply interested in proceeding with the Study of High Schools, which has been in the planning stage this year, and which I cannot responsibly pursue concurrently with my duties here. Secondly, I feel that both institutions and people have certain paces or rhythms. Personally, I have felt that a tour in a post such as I have held is, at least for persons like me, best enjoyed for about ten years — and next year will be my ninth."

Sizer's planned study of High Schools, which will aim to produce a set of policy recommendations for the schooling of adolescents in the '80s and '90's, is supported by planning grants from the Charles E. Culpepper Foundation and The Commonwealth Fund.

Bell From Old Vale Mill

Ballardvale Bell To Peal Again

A 115-year-old bell which for decades rang at the opening and closing of daily operations at the Ballardvale Mill in Andover will soon peal again at the Merrimack Valley Textile Museum, North Andover.

The historic bell, which has not rung for many years, will return to service on the evening of Thursday, July 31, during the first annual gathering of the Friends of the Merrimack Valley Textile Museum, a new group sponsoring the work of the museum.

Donated to the museum in 1960 by the late Edmund F. Leland, Jr., the bell was recently repaired with the funding from the Friends of the Museum.

The ringing of the bell atop the Ballardvale Mill was once a familiar sound in the community, as it rang twice each day. The bell was cast in 1865 by the Henry N. Hooper Company of Boston, and presented to Captain J. Putman Bradley, owner of the Ballardvale Mill, by his sale agent, Colonel William L. Strong, Bradley, who had started working in the mill in 1837, purchased it in 1866 from proprietors John Marland, Abraham Gould and Mark Newman. Strong represented the mill as sales agent in New York City, and went on to become mayor of that city in 1896.

Leland purchased the mill during the early 1950's for the use as a mill storehouse.

The bell will now toll from the cupola of the red brick building overlooking North Andover Common to mark special events at the Textile Museum, as well as civic and national holidays.

Also during the gathering, the oldest operating power loom in the United States will weave cloth once more.

Thomas W. Leavitt, director, said the fully-restored loom will be incorporated into the museum's major exhibit on early textile technology. Rescued from an abandoned woolen mill in Western Pennsylvania, the historic machine has been carefully reassembled by an expert team of curators, mechanics, painters and loom-fixers. Made in Philadelphia, Penn., circa 1870 by M.A. Furbush and Sons, the loom spent most of its useful life making "fancy" cloth during the Victorian era.

Restoration of the loom was made possible by a grant to the museum from the Hamel Charitable Foundation.

Staff, trustees and friends of the museum will share light refreshments from 5 to 7 p.m.

Health Dept. Gets Two New Members

The selectmen Monday night confirmed the appointment of two new members to the health department, part of the Department of Community Development and Planning.

Everett F. Penny, Jr., 36, of Dracut was appointed to the new position of Director of Public Health, while Walter Erickson, 27, of Tyngsboro was appointed to the position of Sanitarian and coordinator of environmental affairs.

Penny, who will receive an annual salary of $19,514, is a pharmacist working towards a master's degree in public health at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. He has served as a member of the board of health in both Dracut and Tewksbury.

Erickson will receive an annual salary of $18,697; $17,697 for his duties as sanitarian and $1,000 for serving as environmental affairs coordinator.

Erickson is returning to Andover, where he served as a conservation aid until two months ago when he became director of public health in Chelmsford. He received his bachelor's degree in environmental biology and a master's degree in business management from the University of Lowell.

Dr. Douglas Dunbar, chairman of the board of health, said the town was fortunate to gain the services of the two new members, who would "serve the town to great advantage."

Dunbar added that the board of health would like to discuss several of its "top priority items" with the selectmen at a future meeting, including the board of health's role in a community disaster plan, and land use planning.

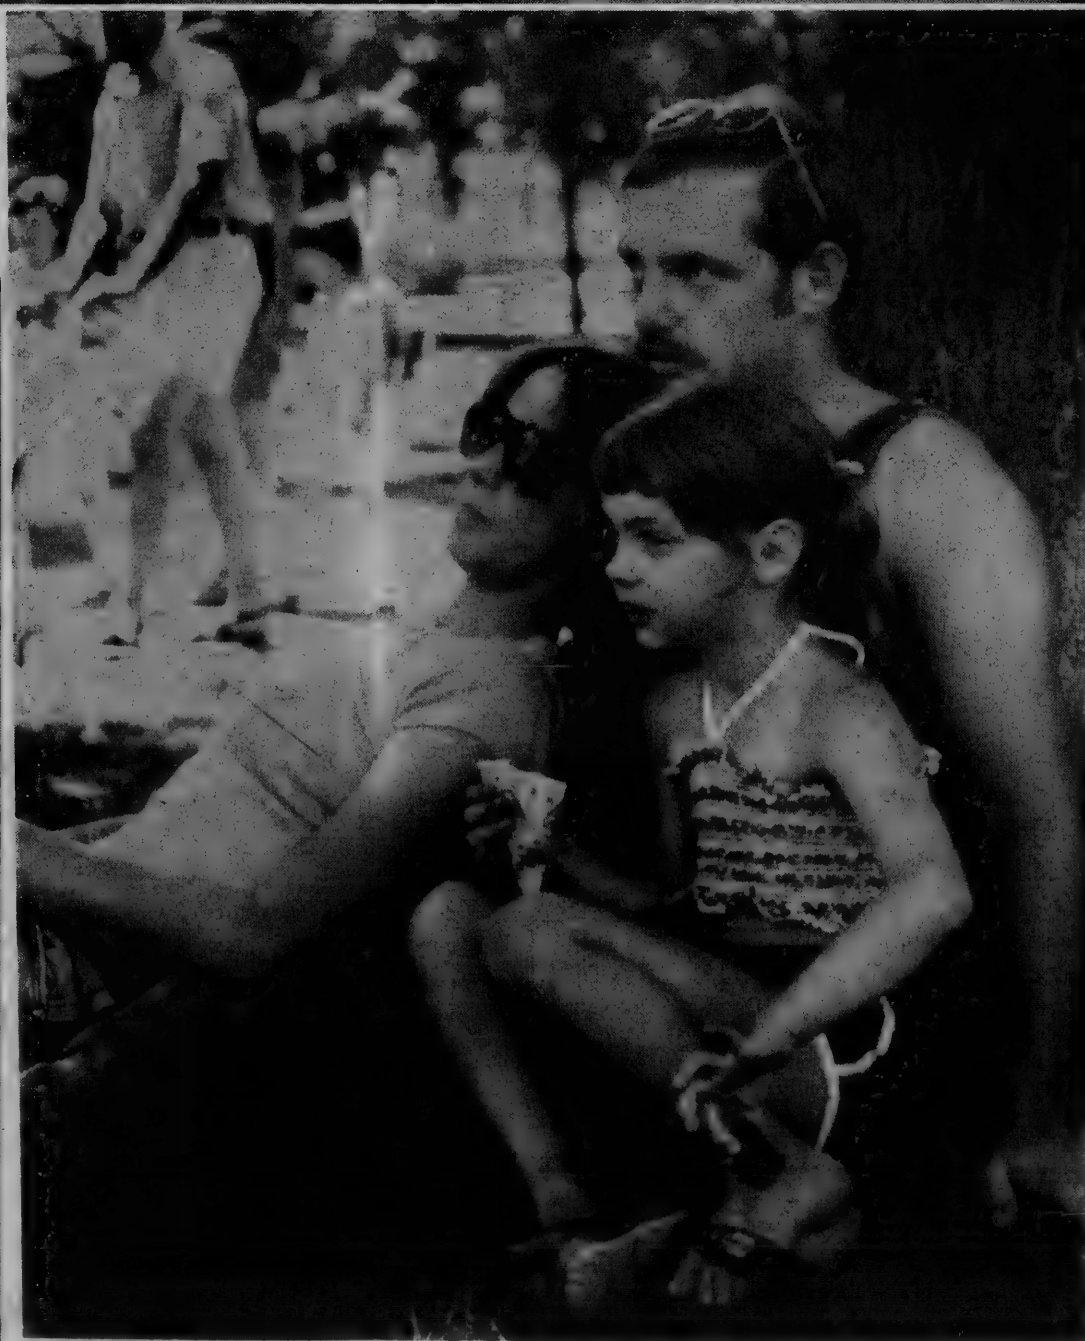

"We support (Selectman Susan) Poore's land use interest," said Dunbar. "People have been building homes on very marginal swamp land. We'd like to see the zoning tightened, or whatever can be done to pull people back from the swamps. We plan to move full speed ahead on that."

Family Fun On The Fourth

Music, rides, games and food brought Andover families to Central Park to celebrate a hot and sunny Fourth of July. Clockwise from to left: Scott Delibac, Ronnie McGregor, Crystal Delibac and Kimberly McGregor relish their cotton candy, while Paul Gmyrek mixes up a fresh batch of sticky stuff; Matthew Levine tries his luck at a dart game; Jessica King chomps on a hotdog; George Starks and Mimi and Cheryl Dube relax and listen to Dixieland and Maggie and Chip Redding swing along on a ride.

History And Industry

There is a sudden interest in the historical value of the Shattuck Farms property on the part of historians.

While the thought of preserving the farm buildings is a noble one, as is the determination of valuable artifacts being buried in the land, we wonder if the sudden spurt of interest isn't a bit late.

There has been little doubt that the Shattuck farm property was suited and zoned for industry for over ten years. Initial development of the area was indicated within the past decade. The town appropriated funds to extend necessary utilities to the area, with the stipulation that no money be spent until such time as there was a definite tenant for the area. That occurred some time ago.

The acreage, owned by Arkwright/Boston Insurance was indeed valuable for industrial development and it was only a matter of time, once construction began in the area, its attraction would only become greater for others to follow.

Now, with the land almost entirely taken by industrial firms, state and local historians see the value of possible retention of the farm buildings.

No doubt the buildings do have some historical significance, based on the many years that it proved to be an agricultural asset to Andover.

But, much of this effort should have been initiated a long time ago.

Industrial leaders, such as Digital, are now working with the town to determine if some use can be made of the buildings.

Arkwright/Boston has also made some effort toward building preservation, having asked the town previously for permission to move them, for use as a bank and offices. The matter was deferred once but will be before the Board of Appeals once again next week.

This brings in another factor, always involved in a development of this magnitude — the neighbors.

While abutters of the industrial property seem somewhat reluctantly amenable to the industrial development, they have also expressed a desire to preserve some of the residential character of their neighborhood.

They were opposed to the conversion of the farm house to a bank and offices before and probably will follow that course when it is presented to the appeals board next week.

When the matter was first presented a year or two ago, some selectmen also expressed concern about a bank going into the area, noting the traffic which would be created by such a commercial enterprise, as well as the encroachment of other than industrial plants into an area designed solely for that purpose.

Moving the structures for use in the commercial or business area may face more obstacles than the historians, landowners and industrial officials getting together to resolve the issue. That the groups are willing to discuss the matter is promising in itself, in that it displays a community interest on the part of the new corporate citizens.

It just seems unfortunate, that with so much time, the matter could have been examined in a calmer atmosphere. It now amounts to almost working toward a solution under crises conditions, which is not always advantageous.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — July 1905

The tailers in this town entertained the tailers of Lowell at Martain's pond on Monday. The local men report a most enjoyable time.

Frederick Jewett was injured on Tuesday by falling from a cherry tree on the estate of Mrs. E. Tilton on Salem street. He was picking cherries when the limb on which he was standing gave way and he fell, landing on a picket fence. His hip and side were badly bruised.

George F. Smith of this town won first prize in the third event of the hill climbing contest of the Lawrence Automobile Club which was held in Lawrence on Wednesday. Mr. Smith drove his machine up the hill in 1 minute 23.5 seconds.

The lightning which accompanied the storm on Monday afternoon caused considerable trouble with the electric cars on the local line between this town and Lawrence. A bolt struck one car as it was passing through the square, burning out the wires, causing a great sheet of fire which enveloped the front of the car. No one was hurt although the passengers were greatly frightened.

The brown-tailed moths have arrived in Andover and every night near the electric lights swarms of them can be seen flying around. Many people are complaining of the rash which is caused by the brown tails.

50 Years Ago — July 1930

The old combination bubbler and horse trough which was located on the square has been replaced by a modern bubbler.

At midnight on the eve of the Fourth of July several bombs and a stroke on the engine-house bell in Ballarvale announced the arrival of the holiday and a big bonfire was touched off. For miles around the blaze illuminated the sky and attracted many visitors.

The third Andover Vacation church school opened this week at the John Dove school with Miss Bessie Carter of Wets Andover in charge. Exactly one hundred have registered, seventy-three of the pupils being girls, and twenty-seven boys.

A party by Professor Warren K. Moorhead, director of the archaeology department of Phillips Academy, went to Merrimacport last Friday afternoon and discovered the original resting place of a huge Indian mortar which was recently discovered in the rear of the Merrimacport schoolhouse.

Police Officer Frank McBride of the Andover Police Department discovered a break in the First National store early Monday morning. The only articles thought to be stolen were a few bottles of tonic.

25 Years Ago — July 1955

If the town builds a new four-room addition onto the Shawsheen School, there will be no state aid. That was the definite answer brought back from Boston by Miss Anna M. Greeley, chairman of the school committee.

Andover police brought five men into district court Tuesday morning for speeding through the town. They paid a total of $55 in fines, imposed by Judge John J. Darcey.

Deputy Fire Chief Henry L. Hilton has been named chief of the department. The selectmen made this decision on a six-month probationary basis, at a meeting Monday night.

The "Honeymooners," a pair of cats belonging to Francis Bailey, won first prize at the pet show held at North district playground last week. They shared first place glories with a collie dog and a small turtle. Owner of the dog is Francis Robidoux while the turtle belonged to Pamela Welch.

Deborah Smith, 15 year-old daughter of Mr. Mrs. Byron H. Smith, 20 Johnson Road, was knocked down by a horse at the Harold Parker state forest, when a dog frightened the animal.

10 Years Ago — July 1970

The Central fire station will become a youth drop-in center when the firefighters move out. The selectmen Monday gave permission for such use on a temporary basis after presentation of proposal by Recreation Director Leslie Bartow, who told the board his department had been looking for such a facility for some time.

A decision on the future of the Musgrove building may be forthcoming within a week. A meeting of local officials Tuesday resulted in requesting legal opinion from Atty. Alfred L. Daniels, assistant town counsel, as to which steps can be taken to correct the situation, which has closed off business in the building and pedestrian traffic around it in Elm Square since June 7.

Some selectmen would like to combine the 325th anniversary scheduled for next year with the Fourth of July observance, but it will remain up to the committees to resolve the issue.

The American Academy of Achievement in Dallas, Texas, has presented its highest award to an Andover educator, Joshua L. Miner, president of Outward Bound, Inc.

Work began this week on resurfacing the roads in the Harold Parker State Forest. Several roadways in bad disrepair were to be resurfaced under a contract awarded by the department of natural resources.

Charlotte Roe

The Roots Of Jazz

Early days in New Orleans and some of the legendary musicians who made Bourbon Street and Basin Street famous are included in the current display of jazz books and records in the main reading room of Memorial Hall Library. Sam Simons, Staff reference librarian, has prepared a book and record list on the "Roots of Jazz" which is available for our patrons.

Charlotte Roe July Artist

Charlotte Roe of Lake Ronkonkoma, Long Island, N.Y. is the July artist of the month at Memorial Hall Library. Painting is only one of her talents as she is a member of the National League of American Pen Women and has New York State approval as an experimental psychotherapist in the arts. She has edited a trio of textbooks: one on architecture, one on psychiatry and one on bio-feedback. Linking her artistry to music and literature, Mrs. Roe has created some unusual watercolors for this show. With aviation and soaring experience, she relates enjoyment of the arts as highlights in living. Her paintings have previously been exhibited in Arizona, Long Island and the American Graduate School of International Management.

Children's Room News By Bridget Bennet

Summer fun in the Children's Room is under way as we look forward to a variety of up-coming activities. For "Make-It-On-Monday," on July 14 at 2 p.m. we'll be experimenting with creative publications when children ages 6-10 may come in and spend an hour learning some ways to make books of their own.

Tuesday mornings we'll continue with "Story Garden," our drop-in story hour for children ages 3½ to 5. Starting at 10 a.m., the program consists of 45 minutes of stories, songs and games for pre-schoolers.

Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. on July 16, we'll be featuring the science fiction movie "Escape to Witch Mountain," recommended for children ages 7-12. Free tickets for this movie will be available in the Children's Room after 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

For children entering 4th, 5th or 6th grade in the fall, there is still space available in the "Summer Borrowers" — the summer reading club which meets each Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. Please call the Children's Room at 475-6960 if you would like more information about the reading club or any other scheduled programs.

Dairy Prices A-Whey: Time to Drop AnchorBy JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON — Last April the price of milk and butter shot up again: Another 7.5 cents were added to the price of a gallon of milk, and a pound of butter increased by 9.5 cents.

Yet federal warehouses are teeming with dairy products that farmers can't sell. Under the complex price-support system, Uncle Sam buys up surplus milk, butter and cheese to keep them off the market. This guarantees the farmers a stable price.

The support price is increased twice a year; it automatically rises each April and October. This means the taxpayers must pay more for the milk and butter they buy at the supermarket.

But that isn't the worst. As the prices soar, fewer people are able to afford milk and butter. This creates more surplus dairy products that the taxpayers have to purchase.

Sources at the Agriculture Department estimate that the government will shell out $1 billion more for dairy supports this year than the program cost last year. Meanwhile, like the cow that jumped over the moon, dairy prices have been rising faster than any other food product.

Why doesn't the federal government stop the spiraling prices? President Carter's budget experts recommended cutting out at least one of the automatic price increases. This would have saved the taxpayers millions. It would also have saved the consumers those 7.5-cent and 9.5-cent increases last April.

But President Carter didn't want to lose the dairy farmers' vote in the crucial Wisconsin primary. So he overruled his budget advisers on the eve of the primary.

The Agriculture Department helped out the farmers in another way: Between April 9 and April 30, the department received and accepted bids for almost 16 million pounds of processed cheese, which will be donated to schools. Suspiciously, the bureaucrats bought all the cheese just days after the federal price supports were hiked.

The cheese, as a result, will cost the taxpayers $1.4 million more than it would have, had it been purchased a few days earlier.

HOW TO QUIET A CRITIC: The Navy doesn't like officers who rock the boat. Take the case of Dr. Kurt Luedtke, the former chief of neuropsychiatry at a Memphis naval station.

Dr. Luedtke treated dozens of recruits who had been accepted by the Navy, despite histories of mental illness and records of violence. Under the law, they should never have been recruited, so Luedtke complained to his superiors.

They not only ignored his complaints but warned him to stop rocking the boat.

But Luedtke is a religious man. His conscience wouldn't allow him to keep silent. So he reported the illegal activity to Sen. John Tower, R-Texas.

As a consequence, Luedtke was bundled off, Soviet-style, to the Bethesda Naval Hospital for mental evaluation. Only a few months earlier, ironically, he had received the Meritorious Service Medal from the same superiors who now sought to brand him as a mental case.

For 12 days, the Navy doctors examined and re-examined Luedtke. In the end, they had to give him a clean bill of health. So he escaped the stigma of being locked up and labeled as crazy.

But Luedtke was so disillusioned by the experience that he left the Navy. The state of North Carolina, after one look at his resume, hired him for a top position.

Meanwhile, the Navy lost a conscientious officer, and nothing has been done about the illegal recruitment.

HEROIN EPIDEMIC? Federal drug officials are worried that the United States may be on the brink of another heroin epidemic. Opium production is on the increase in the Middle East. And heroin purity is on the upswing — a sign that opium is becoming cheap and plentiful. Poppies grow abundantly in Afghanistan and Iran, where law enforcement is lax and corrupt. Borders in the area are unguarded, and Kurdish drug traffickers are smuggling the opium into Europe. The chances are good that much of it will show up as heroin on the streets of American cities.

BENEVOLENT DICTATOR: Cuban strongman Fidel Castro is winning the battle for the hearts and especially the minds of Nicaraguans. Since the revolution in Nicaragua last year, Castro has dispatched 1,200 grammar school teachers to that country in lieu of financial aid. Five hundred more are scheduled to go within a few days. Meanwhile, all U.S. Peace Corps teachers were pulled out of Nicaragua when the revolution began, and they have yet to return.

HALL OF HEROES: We nominate to our Hall of Heroes the intrepid taxmen of the Internal Revenue Service. Apparently the IRS agents take their lives into their hands when they sign on to be the front-line troops in these days of tax revolt. According to statistics compiled by the FBI, in one recent year there were 771 attacks on federal law enforcement officials. Almost half of them — 312 to be exact — were against the taxmen.

Ruthers Successful In Canada

Dennis Glynn
... tosses four-hit shutout

Jeff Parker
... five-hitter vs. Canadians

Bob Rikeman
... defensive star at catcher

Billy Vickers
... slams long triple in finale

By Rick Harrison

Andover Babe Ruth baseball teams recently completed another highly-successful trip to Montreal, Canada by winning five of six games against comparable youth teams from that Quebec city.

The Andover contingent, which included 28 ballplayers, was split into a 13-15 year old squad and a 16-18 year old crew.

The older Ruthers swept their three games, edging the NDG Maroons, 10-9, belting the Cote St. Luc Avengers, 10-2, and edging the Mount Royal Mets, 7-5.

The younger Ruthers won two of three starts, the victories at the expense of Cote St. Luc, 4-1, and St. Michel, 4-0.

The only loss was administered by Mount Royal, which jumped to an early 14-1 lead and then held off a late Andover rally for a 14-9 triumph.

Older players who made the trip were Jake Powell, Tim Grams, Jon Pelletier, Jim Lacourse, Fred Foote, Glenn McIntyre and Lary Larrabee.

The 13-15 group included Jeff Parker, Chris O'Reilly, Dennis Glynn, Robbie Wilson, Mark LeFebvre, Steve Dougal, Billy Vickers, Scott Zimmerman, Mike Gibson, Dave Laporte, Kurt Smith, Tom Powers, Brett Larrabee, Mark Brams, Bill Weidman, Bob Rikeman, John Geiger, Tom Lutz, Mike Surette, Krait Burzlaff, and Paul Lambers.

While in Montreal for six days, the Andover team resided at the University of Montreal where it had use of the campus pool, gymnasium and astroturf football stadium field. Each player had his own dormitory room.

The group also attended a Montreal Expos-Pittsburgh Pirates game, won by the Pirates 6-4, and a Canadian Football League contest in which the Montreal Alouettes defeated the Ottawa Roughriders, 34-24.

The kids' made several trips to "La Ronde," the amusement area at the Man and His world site, and also had quite a bit of free time to themselves in downtown Montreal.

This marked the 10th annual Canadian trip for the Andover Ruthers, and the 5-1 record boosted the locals' overall mark north of the border to a flashy 20-6.

Among the on-the-field highlights were outstanding pitching performances by

American League Champs

Tigers Take Title

The Tigers won this seasons's title in the American Little League with a 17 - 1 record. The Bengals ran off winning streaks of 6 and 11 games sandwiched around a one-runloss enroute to their championship.

The tigers parlayed a stingy defence and a potent offense to take the title. While the pitchers were compiling a 2.82 earned-run average the fielders chipped in with 119 assists, 202 putouts and reeled off 9 double plays, 8 triples and 4 home runs. Out-hitting the opposition 174-90, the Bengals enjoyed a 170-74 scoring bulge.

With no opponent hitting or scoring in double digits the pitchers twirled a no-hitter, two one-hitters and a two hitter. Earl Abdoo, Mark Doherty and Kevin Rourke led the mound staff with 4 victories each. Shane Smith and Scott Wallace chalked up two wins apiece. Ray Rourke registered a win while cousin Dave Rourke chipped in a save. Giving up only 24 extra-base hits, the staff registered 123 strikeouts.

The prolific scoring machine was led by 12 year-old quartet of Doherty, Eric Neyman, Kevin Rourke and Smith, all with batting averages of .420 or better. Abdoo headed the 11 year-olds at .455 while Wallace led the 10's at .370. Slugging at a .519 clip, the team averaged better than 9 hits and runs per game and reached double digits in both categories 8 times. The Bengal hitters averaged only 3 strikeouts per game.

The Tigers are the American League representative in the Andover town championship series. Their opponent is the National League champion Braves.

Abdoo, Doherty, Neyman, Kevin Rourke and Smith were nominated to the American League All-Star team competing in the Little League World Series Tournament. The American All-Stars open tomorrow at 5:45 p.m. at the home field of the Billerica-North Reading game.

Parker, Glynn, Powell and Larrabee, along with the slugging of Larragee, Foote and Lacourse.

Andover Bantams, 4-1

The trip began with a scheduled doubleheader against the NDG Maroons under the lights being washed out by a series of thunderstorms.

The Andover tne NDG Bantams (13-15 years) were locked in a 1-1 tie in the second inning of the opener when the rains came.

Mark Lefebvre had scored the Andover run in the second, lashing a leadoff single, stealing second and scoring on Dennis Glynn's basehit. John Geiger also rapped a single before the skies opened.

The following day the Andover Bantams dumped the Cote St. Luc Avengers 4-1 at Kerwin Park.

Jeff Parker went the route on the mound, scattering five singles, striking out four and walking just one.

Andover jumped on losing pitcher Jeff Litwin for three runs in the top of the second, then added a run in the fourth.

Mike Gibson opened the second with a solid double to leftfield, continued to third when the ball was misplayed, and he scored on Mark Lefebvre's sacrifice fly.

Dennis Glynn followed with a single, Dave Laporte walked, John Geiger smacked a run-scoring single, and Laporte eventually came across on an infield error.

Cote St. Luc threatened in the bottom of the second on consecutive one-out singles by Dave Routtenberg and Litwin, but Parker bore down to escape after an infield pop and strikeout.

In the Andover third Chris O'Reilly reached on a two-base error, but he was nailed at the plate trying to score on Gibson's second hit.

The final run by the winners came with two down in the fourth, as Mark Grams singled, stole second, and raced home on Parker's single.

Parker, who retired eight straight batters during one late stretch, lost his shutout in the seventh. Paul Green reached on a fielder's choice, stole second, and scored when Mark Goldberg's hump-back line dropped out of Scott Zimmerman's glove after the centerfielder made a long run for the ball.

Gibson led the seven-hit Andover attack with 2-for-2, while Grams (catcher and second base) and O'Reilly (shortstop) were defensive stars.

Andover Bantams, 4-0

Righthander Dennis Glynn picked up his fourth victory of the young season, and his second shutout, as he stopped St. Michel 4-0 on a four-hitter at St. Bernadette Park.

Glynn struck out 10, didn't walk a batter for the second straight game, and was in complete control, throughout.

Andover notched the only run it would need in the top of the first when Jeff Parker reached on an error, stole second and third, and scored on another miscue.

The locals took themselves out of a potential big inning with some shoddy baserunning, however, as two other players were erased on rundowns.

The victors threatened in the second, loading the bases with two outs when Scott Zimmerman singled, Robby Wilson walked, and Rob Rikeman singled. A tapper back to the mound ended the inning.

A fine defensive play by catcher Rikeman preserved the shutout in the third. Claude Bisson led with a single to centerfield, advanced to third base on a sacrifice bunt and error, and tried to score on a suicide squeeze bunt by Emile Beauchamp. However, Glynn scooped up the ball and tossed it to Rikeman made the tag and held the ball for the out.

St. Michel never threatened again, and Glynn finished with a flourish by striking out seven batters in the last three innings.

Andover added a pair of insurance runs in the fourth to make it 3-0, doing the damage without benefit of a hit. Tom Powers was safe on an error, advanced to third on a pair of wild pitches, and scored on Zimmerman's infield out. Glynn walked, stole second, took third on the infield tapper, and raced across on Robby Wilson's perfect suicide squeeze bunt.

The final Andover tally came in the fifth. Parker beat out an infield hit, stole second, and raced home on O'Reilly's basehit.

Kraig Burzlaff and Tom Lutz chipped in solid singles for Andover, which managed only six safeties itself, while third baseman Parker and Rikeman were the defensive standouts.

Bisson stroked a pair of singles for St. Michel.

Andover Midgets, 10-9

The Andover Midgets opened with an exciting 10-9 victory over the NDG Maroons at Loyola Park, but it was a costly triumph as two key players left the game with injuries.

Glenn McIntyre, who was expected to pitch the second game for the older team, was hit on the inside of the right elbow by a fastball in the first inning and sidelined for the remainder of the trip.

Shortstop O'Reilly, one of several boys who played for both the younger and older teams, was submarined at second base during a steal attempt and he suffered a pair of bruised Achilles tendons.

Andover bolted to a commanding 9-1 lead after four innings, but found itself handing on for dear life at the end as NDG scored six runs in the fifth and two more in the sixth.

Run-producing singles by starting pitcher Jon Pelletier and Jake Powell highlighted a four-run Andover first.

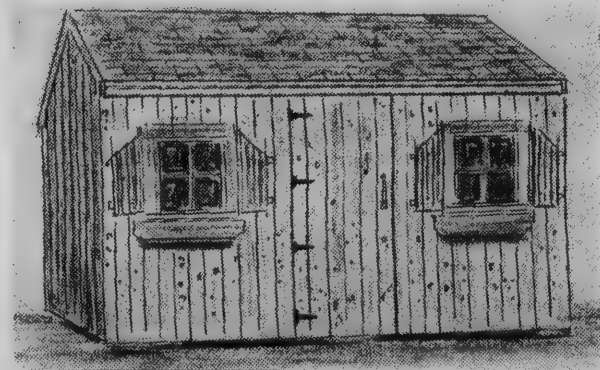

The locals batted around in the second, hiking their lead to 8-0 with four more runs. Jeff Parker and Lary Larrabee had basehits, O'Reilly was nit by a pitch and walks were issued to Jim Lacourse, Pelletier (RBI), Tim Grams (RBI) and Fred Foote (RBI).

Andover made it 9-0 in the third when Glynn singled home Larrabee, who had opened the stanze with a double. With two down Grams singled and Powell walked, but Maroons' reliever Barry Wong escaped the bases-loaded jam by fanning the

Program For Back At YMCA

The Andover-North Andover YMCA will be offering the "Y's Way to a Healthy Back" program starting Monday, July 14. The program, designed primarily to relieve back pain, increase flexibility and ease tension, was designed by Dr. Hans Kraus, M.D., world-famous back specialist and approved by the Medical Advisory Committee of the YMCA of Greater New York.

The special exercise program which utilizes the Kraus-Weber test to determine minimal muscular strength and flexibility is composed of a series of movements that begins with relaxation, then flexibility, mild muscular strengthening and returning to muscle relaxation techniques.

"More than eighty percent of the participants previously enrolled in our program found relief or complete elimination of back pain," according to Mrs. Bevolyn Oliver, certified instructor of the program.

"If you are among the many who complain of back pain and your condition is not caused by organic disease, but by muscles that are weak or tense or both, the Y.M.C.A. program may be of significant help to you," stated Mrs. Oliver.

The six week program will be offered Monday and Wednesday from 7:15-8 p.m. starting July 14 and ending Aug. 20. Registrations are now being accepted at the Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. between the hours of 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday.

For further information on the Y's Way to a Healthy Back program, call Bevolyn Oliver at the Y.M.C.A., 165 Haverhill Street, Andover.

Braves Take National Crown

By Dan Grams

The Braves carried their amazing second half streak right through the league playoffs, taking the National League title, with a 5-1 victory over last year's champion Cardinals.

The Cardinals made it into the title match with a 10-4 victory over the last half co-champion Pirates.

The Braves will now head into the town championship against the American League Champion Tigers, in a best of three series slated to open July 7.

Cards 10, Pirates 4

Pirates ace Rob Ditre took to the hill, but was viciously battered around by the Cardinal bats on way to a 10-4 setback.

Ditre, whose pitching dominated the league throughout the season, suffered only his second loss in 12 decisions.

Ted Cormier (4 innings), Robbie Carpentier (1 inning), and Scott Deery (1 inning) handled the pitching duties for the Cards, with Cormier taking the win.

Steven Surrette led an awesome barrage in which all Cardinal players chipped in with safeties. Surrette's two singles, driving in two runs. Robbie Ditre provided most of the Pirate offense with a towering homer to centerfield.

Braves 5, Cards 1

Jonathan Yezerki limited the Cardinals to just three hits on the way to a 5-1 victory. The Braves struck early and were in control throughout the game, in route to overthrowing the defending league champion Cards.

Yezerki struckout 5, while walking 3 in his outstanding pitching performance.

A big second inning paved the way for the Braves, highlighted by: singles by Jeff McNeil and David Sullivan, and an intentional walk to Jeff Penner.

Matt Aumais (second base), Tim Plaehn (leftfield) and Sullivan (catcher), turned in tremendous defensive games for the victors.

It was a good, well-played game, ending an excellent 1980 National League season on a positive note.

"Hole In One" Competition Draws Many Golfers

the department of Community Services held its first "Hole in One" Golf Competition on Friday, July 4 as part of its annual townwide Fourth of July Celebration. Over 40 golfers took their best shots at the seventy yard hole on a day that was perfect for virtually every type of outdoor activity.

Competition took place in three categories. In the Adult/Child Division, Jonathan and Ray Butt were tied with On Dean's List

Andover residents Peggy Gannon and Donna Pantoleo have been named to the dean's list during the 1979-80 school year at Holy Cross College, Worcester.

Gannon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gannon of 6 Virginia Road, is a senior majoring in psychology. She has been named to the dean's list for the spring semester.

Pantoleo, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pantoleo of 4 Bradley Road, is a sophomore majoring in history. She has been named to the dean's list for both the fall and spring semesters.

Founded in 1843, Holy Cross is the oldest Catholic college in New England. It is a coeducational, Jesuit, liberal arts college, with an enrollment of 2,500 students.

Frank Buck and Mike Lasquade at the end of both rounds of competition. The match was determined by a one shot tie-breaker in which the Butt family barely edged out their opponents with a slightly more accurate drive.

In the Children's Singles Division Peter Stark topped Evan Darling by a score of 6 to 5. Darling's five point shot proved to be the most accurate shot of the day. His effort landed just two feet and eight inches away from the flag. Stephen Farrington had the second closest shot of the day when his ball landed just three feet and seven inches off the mark.

In the Adult Doubles Division, Nancy Tynning and Richard Lawrence edged Ed and Julie Donlan by two points to take the division crown.

Winners within each category:

Division 1 (Adult/Child) — 1. Jonathan Butt and Ray Butt; 2. Frank Buck and Mike Lasquade; 3. Jonathon Butt and Richard Butt; 4. Bill Donovan and Tim Donovan; Frank Sullivan and Fran Sullivan.

Division 2 (Child Singles) — 1. Peter Strak; 2. Evan Darling; 3. Keith Cutler; 4. Tom Darling.

Division 3 (Adult Doubles) — 1. Nancy

Tynning and Richard Lawrence; 2. Ed Donlan and Julie Donlan. Shot Closest To The Pin — 1. Evan Darling; 2. Stephen Farrington.

next batter.

Hard-throwing righthander Jon Pelletier breezed through the first three frames for Andover, facing only 10 batters, but lost both his no-hitter and shutout after two were out in the fourth.

Brett Baynham walked, stole second, and scored on a Steve Steduck single.

Walks to Parker, Larrabee and Glynn game Andover another bases loaded situation in the fourth, but the victors couldn't capitalize.

What turned out to be the deciding run came in the top of the fifth when Pelletier drew the 10th of 12 walks received by Andover, took third on Jake Powell's single to rightfield, and scored on an error.

The NDG comeback began in earnest with a six-run bottom of the fifth. Three walks and a pair of hit batsmen aided the rally, as Pelletier was relieved by Fred Foote. The Maroons produced just one hit, but that was a gigantic three-run triple to centerfield by Steduck.

Andover entered the sixth protecting a now slim 10-7 lead. Denis Mitakis and John Bianchini drew leadoff walks, and Paul Muller followed with a scorching liner to centerfield that Tim Grams turned into a spectacular over-the-shoulder tumbling catch to save two runs.

Barry Wong skied to Lacourse in left for the second out, but Baynham singled home with the eighth run and Steduck walked to load the bases.

Grams replaced Foote on the mound, and Clarke Bedford rapped an RBI single to right field to cut the NDG deficit to 10-9.

Grams then went to 3-0 on Lorne Blumer before coming back to throw four straight strikes, the third on a ticked foul and the fourth lofted to shallow centerfield for the game-ending out.

Powell finished the game 2-for-3, Larrabee 2-for-4 with two runs scored, Pelletier scored three times and Lacourse twice.

NDC managed only four hits with two of them by Steduck.

The game was drawn out by 19 walks and four hit batsmen.

Lary Larrabee turned in a solid defensive effort behind the plate for Andover.

Andover Midgets, 10-2

Jake Powell, making his first pitching appearance since his Little League days with the National League Cubs, fashioned a masterful three-hitter as Andover manhandled a highly-touted Cote St. Luc Avenger Squad 10-2 at Kerwin Park.

The contest followed right on the heels of the game against the Maroons, as the Andover contingent hopped in several vehicles after beating NDG and traveled across town for its second game.

Powell, who was backed by a solid 13-hit attack, struck out six and walked three as he mixed fastballs and curves with an effective knuckler.

Only four Cote St. Luc runners advanced as far as second base, with two of them scoring in the third and seventh.

Andover jumped on top 4-0 in the second. Jon Pelletier led with a double to rightfield. Powell legged out an infield hit, and run-scoring singles were added by Fred Foote, Dennis Glynn and Mike Gibson.

Lary Larrabee chased home the fourth run with a mammoth sacrifice fly to deep left-centerfield.

A pair of infield errors produced the first Avengers' run in the third, but Andover retaliated in the fourth when Foote singled and later crossed on Larrabee's two-out line shot single to leftfield.

Jim Lacourse led off the Andover fifth with a towering homerun to rightfield, picking on a slow curve and lifting it well over a 40-foot netting atop the short rightfield fence.

Pelletier, Powell and Foote followed with successive singles, but it didn't produce a run as Pelletier was gunned down trying to steal by outstanding Avengers' catcher Tim Zoeller.

Powell continued to breeze through the Cote St. Luc lineup, and the winners added four final runs in the sixth.

Four walks, two errors and a two-run single by Powell combined to wreak havoc on a pair of Avengers' relievers as 10 Andover batters paraded to the mound.

Foote finished the game 3-for-3, walking once as well and scoring two runs. Powell was 3-for-4 with two ribbies, Larrabee 2-for-3 with two RBIs, Pelletier 2-for-3 with two runs scored, and Lacourse scored twice.

Steve Zoeller led the Cote St. Luc offense with an infield single and solid double.

Defensive stalwarts for Andover were Pelletier at shortstop and Foote at second base, both of whom handled six chances flawlessly.

Mount Royal Bantams, 14-9

After five pretty busy days in Montreal, the Andover Bantams came out flat against Mount Royal and were beaten by the TMR Mets 14-9 at Mount Royal Park.

Babe Ruth League

The Canadians prevented an Andover sweep by touching three pitchers for 14 hits, while four untimely errors led to seven unearned runs for the winners.

Andover took a brief 1-0 lead in the top of the first when Tom Powers singled, took second on a wild pitch, and raced across on Mark Lefebvre's two-out single.

The locals were unable to get a hit off Mount Royal righthander Ed Monaghan over the next four innings, however, with the only runners being Kurt Smith and Tom Lutz on walks.

In the meantime, the host team scored four runs in the first, four in the second, five in the fourth and one in the fifth against the sluggish Andover crew.

Trailing 14-1 entering the sixth, the locals didn't quit as they struck for five runs.

The key hits were by Paul Lambers, Scott Zimmerman and Jeff Parker, all RBI singles. Robby Wilson and Tom Lutz both walked and scored, while Mike Surette also scored after being hit with a pitch.

Lefthander Billy Vickers retired Mount Royal without incident in the bottom of the sixth, and once again Andover went to work in the seventh.

With one out Vickers clouted a long triple down the rightfield line. He scored when Lambers' infield grounder was misplayed, and Andover loaded the bases when Zimmerman walked and Lutz was hit by a pitch.

Bob Rikeman stroked a two-run single to make it 14-9, and Surette reached on a dropped third strike to re-load the bases with one out.

The game ended on a bizarre note, however, when Jeff Parker popped out and Andover's third base coach was subsequently detected aiding the runner at third for the final out.

Zimmerman and Lambers paced the Andover offense with a hits and two runs scored apiece.

Bob Babinke went 3-for-3, scored three runs and drove in three for Mount Royal. John Rowen added three hits and four RBI while Ron Shapiro, Fred Berner and Jim Bishop lashed two singles each.

Andover Midgets, 7-5

Andover spotted the older Mount Royal Mets a 4-0 lead in the second inning of the nightcap at the TMR Park, then followed the brilliant relief pitching of Lary Larrabee and the slugging of Larrabee and Fred Footle to a 7-5 victory for a sweep of the Canadian Midgets.

Larrabee relieved starter Tim Grams with one out in the first, and the righthander proceeded to fire six and two-thirds frames of four hit relief.

Larrabee, who allowed just one single after the second inning, struck out seven and walked three.

Mount Royal took a 2-0 lead without benefit of a hit in the first, as five walks and three wild pitches did the damage.

The Mets increased the lead to 4-0 in the second, as Phil Nolan led with a single, Pierre Demers slugged an RBI double, and Rich Veinot stroked a run-scoring two-bagger.

Larrabee was virtually untouchable thereafter, setting down eight straight during one stretch and six in a row late in the game.

The Andover comeback started in the top of the third. Jon Pelletier walked, Fred Foote hammered a long double to leftfield, and Jake Powell bounced a bad-hop single through the second baseman to cut the gap to 4-2.

In the fifth Bob Rikeman walked, Larrabee drilled a double to centerfield, Pelletier walked, Foote cracked a long two-bagger to left-center, and Powell's grounder to second base was misplayed.

When the smoke cleared five Andover runs had crossed, boosting the locals into a 7-4 lead.

The Mets' final run came in the bottom of the fifth when Scott Laprise walked, stole second, took third on an error, and scored on a wild pitch.

Larrabee slammed a long triple to centerfield to open the sixth, but he was left stranded.

Larrabee coasted through the sixth and seventh, although he was helped by a pair of outstanding defensive plays in the final stanza. Jon Pelletier ranged far to his left to make a diving catch of a weak pop-up behind second base, and third sacker Jeff Parker fielded Veinot's slow hopper and nipped him by a half-step at first base.

Larrabee and Foote both finished with two extra-base blows apiece.

Sport Shop Maintains Pace

By Dan Earley

The Andover Sport Shop Soccer Club continued their successful ways last week tying a tough Salem team 1-1 and beating Peabody 3-1.

The club started out the week Tuesday night against Salem at Sacred Heart field in Shawsheen. The sport Shop started slow and a defensive lapse allowed a Salem player to walk in alone and put a shot by Andover goal keeper Chuck Ness for a brief 1-0 lead. The goal woke up the host team as they shook off their lethargy and began to generate some offense. Winger Eric Brandt dug a ball out from a scrap on the left side of the field and managed to work it into striker Dave Farrell who dribbled past a startled Salem goalie into the nets tying the game at one apiece.

Andover continued to apply pressure particularly towards the closing minutes of the half but somehow they failed to score and had to settle for a 1-1 halftime score.

The second half began and the style of play immediately became brutal. Salem, in an attempt to nullify Andover's ball control, short passing offense, went to an all out, hard tackling type of play. The strategy did effectively disrupt Andover's offense as the game degenerated into a brutal series of collisions that continually left players strewn about the field.

About 15 minutes into the half the Sport Shop's Dave Teggard managed to bait a Salem player into so flagrant a foul that he was given a red card and ejected from the game. Under soccer rules, a team may not replace an ejected player so Salem was forced to play the remainder of the contest a man short. Even with the man advantage, however, Andover was unable to score, despite some golden opportunities and the game ended in a 1-1 tie. Carl Gutterman, David Johnson, John Kapelson, Neil Faigel and Tommy Keefe all played very solid soccer in this extremely physical game, while Chuck Ness came up with another fine effort in the nets.

On Thursday night Andover traveled to Peabody and registered a 3-1 triumph.

The game started with Andover controlling the ball and putting on good offensive pressure. Midfielder's David Johnson and Mark Koolen effectively controlled the center of the field and were able to repeatedly deliver the ball to the Sport

Shop's forwards. At about 12 minutes into the half Tommy Keefe passed the ball to Dave Farrell who drilled a shot into the goal for a 1-0 Andover lead. Andover continued to apply pressure but was unable to score and the half ended at 1-0.

The Sport Shop took the field for the second half having been lulled into a false sense of security. They laid back and played lack luster soccer and only the good play of fullbacks Tim Dewhurst and Jim Ness kept Peabody off the board. Then a misfortunate hand ball in the penalty area gave Peabody a penalty kick which they converted into a goal and a tie ballgame. The goal came at 19 minutes into the second half and incensed the Andover team into some fine play. It took just two minutes for Andover to score a goal and regain the lead. Forward Steve Earley picked up the ball at midfield and appeared to have a break away. A slight tap too far ahead gave the ball to the Peabody net minder who appeared to have the same made when Dave Farrell streaked in, batted the ball out of the stunned goal tender's hands and deposited it in the back side of the net for his second score of the afternoon. Andover now with a 2-1 lead and not about to repeat their previous mistake of sitting back, continued to dominate play with good passing and intelligent playmaking. The effort paid off as just four minutes later Dave Hines fed Dave Farrell a pretty pass which Farrell tallied for his third goal of the afternoon, effectively completing his hat trick.

Peabody never got bc into the game as John Kinsky, Dan Marigan and Dan Earley staved off the attack in the defensive end while Tibor Toth and Dave Earley kept offensive pressure on and the game ended 3-1. The win upped Andover's record to 4-0-2 leaving them a single point shy of first place club Topsfield, who they meet next week.

DRIVE UP YOUR NET WORTH IN A RABBIT.

Part of Rabbit appreciation is its depreciation. Take the '78 Rabbit. It's actually increased in book value through the years. That's performance unmatched by the '78 Toyota Corona, Peugeot 504 and Cadillac El Dorado.

Of course, you don't have to get rid of your Rabbit to appreciate its value. While you own it you can enjoy surprising spaciousness, perky acceleration (0 to 50 mph in 8.3 seconds), and remarkable braking (50 to 0 mph in under 4 seconds).

And when the day finally comes to take your Rabbit to market, if you've taken good care of it, chances are it will take good care of you.

That's why many people think the Rabbit isn't just a car but an excellent investment vehicle.

DCS Red Sox Trip

The Department of Community Services is sponsoring its annual trip to see the Boston Red Sox in action at Fenway Park on Monday, July 14. Reserve bleacher seats are now on sale at the DCS office located in the Stowe School on Bartlet Street. Cost of the tickets includes bus transportation to and from the ballpark. Buses will depart from the East Jr. High School parking lot at 6 p.m. and arrive back at the lot about one hour after the game's end. The July 14 game will feature the red hot Detroit Tigers. The Tigers are one of the youngest and most promising teams in the American League and should provide the Red Sox with some tough competition. For additional information concerning ticket cost, availability, etc., individuals should contact the DCS office.

The Twelve Chairs

Monday night's movie special in Central Park on July 14 will be The Twelve Chairs starring Mel Brooks, Dom DeLuise, Ron Moody and Frank Langella. Brooks himself plays a cameo role in this hilarious comedy — adventure about a desperate search all over Czarist Russia for a fortune in family jewels hidden in one of twelve chairs. The movie will begin at dusk, in the event of rain the movie program will be held inside East Jr. and begin at 8 p.m.

Raintree Concert

Bluegrass sounds will be heard on Andover's Central Park beginning at 7 p.m., Wednesday, July 16 as the Department of Community Services Summer Concerts in the Park program continues. In the event of rain the concert will be held inside the East Jr. Auditorium. Please refer to the feature article in today's Townsman for more information on the Raintree concert.

WE COMMAND YOU, if you intend to make any defense, that on the first Monday of September next, which Monday is September 1, 1980 the return day of this subpoena, or within such further time as the law allows, you do cause your written appearance to be entered and your written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the recorder of said court at Boston in the County of Suffolk, and further that you defend against said suit according to law, if you intend to make any defense, and that you do and receive what the court shall order adjudge and decree therein.

Hereof fail not, at your peril, as otherwise said suit may be adjudged, and orders and decrees entered therein, in your absence.

The plaintiff represents that it is the owner of that certain parcel of land situated in Andover, Essex County, and said Commonwealth, on Woburn Street, and more particularly described in a deed to the plaintiff from Andrew Circle Realty Trust, dated March 12, 1980, and recorded with Essex County (Northern District) Registry of Deeds, in Book 1425, Page 142; and further represents that in the chain of title, it appears that Ballardvale Lithia Spring Water Company, a New Jersey corporation, was the record owner of said property and there is no deed from said corporation, to Ballardvale Springs Company, a Massachusetts corporation, from which corporation by mesne conveyances the plaintiff acquired its title; and further represents that said defendant New Jersey corporation was dissolved on December 30, 1905 and that Ballardvale Springs Company, the Massachusetts corporation, was incorporated on December 16, 1905, and in its Articles of Organization appears that stock was issued for "Two parcels of land containing springs, and buildings in the township of Andover, Mass., in all about 50 acres...."; and further represents that James B. Robinson and John O. Loring had been officers and directors of both said corporations and that the Massachusetts corporation had acquired title by merger; and further represents that the plaintiff and its predecessors in title have maintained possession and control of the locus paying real estate taxes thereon for more than 20 years; and further represents that because of the absence of a deed between the corporations, a cloud of suspicion is cast upon the title to the locus; and the plaintiff prays that the Court adjudge and order that the plaintiff holds its title free from any claims of the defendants, and it appearing to the Court upon the suggestion of the plaintiff that the usual process cannot be served on some of the defendants, it is ORDERED that notice be given by publishing a copy of this order once a week for three successive weeks in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper published in the County of Essex, the last publication to be at least one month before the first Monday of September next.

Witness, WILLIAM I. RANDALL, Judge of our Land Court, the third day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty.

Hard Teeth

Shark teeth are nearly as hard as granite and as strong as steel. They are a composite of calcium phosphate crystals imbedded in a gelatinous matrix of protein. The structure is similar to the strongest man-made materials: a composite of hard particles imbedded in softer material such as fiber glass and reinforced concrete, Massachusetts Audubon says.

There's enough phosphorus in the average man's body to make 2,200 match heads.

REALTOR

ASK NOW — SAVE TEARS LATER

From a buyer's viewpoint, I could not think of a worse time to discover that a home has basic flaws than after the deed has been signed, sealed and delivered. There is no need to be unpleasantly surprised. How do you avoid this frustration? Have a ready checklist of items to ask your REALTOR — especially on items that the eye cannot see.

For example: Type of and age of heating system. Types of siding, insulation and roof. Kind of interior walls. Type of waste disposal (city sewer, cesspool or septic.) Type of water supply (well or municipal). Does it contain flouride?). Average or yearly operating costs for utilities; taxes on house for last year and assessed valuation. Accessibility to public transportation, shopping and schools.

We like our buyers to ask us questions. If we don't have all the answers — we'll get them. These are facts you should know before you sign the contract. Not after!

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

Accosting Charges Bring Fine

An Andover man was found guilty of accosting three young girls in the South school and Bancroft school area, and fined $500 in Lawrence District Court last week.

Stephen R. Sciuto Jr., 20, 16 Farrwood Drive, was also found guilty of assault and battery, a charge which had been reduced from kidnaping at the request of Assistant District Atty. Maurice G. McGuire.

Sciuto was given an 18-month sentence on the latter charge, suspended for three years by Judge Paul J. Perocchi, who ordered him to continue psychiatric counselling and further ordered monthly reports to be submitted by Sciuto's psychiatrist.

Atty. Chester Darling, counsel for Sciuto, agreed to sufficient facts on his client's behalf.

Sgt. Richard Enos presented testimony in the case, and told the court of three incidents involving two ten-year-old and one eight-year-old girl. One involved a youngster walking on Woburn Street, who was taken to a gravel pit, briefly talked to, then returned to town, last February. Another incident occurred on Harold Parker Road and a third on Ballardvale Road on June 5.

Andover police placed a stakeout in the South and Bancroft school areas and spotted the car matching the description given them by the three girls, and on June 16 picked up Sciuto for questioning.

Summer Recital At Organ Hall

German organ virtuoso, Almut Rossler, will present a recital on the old Boston Music Hall organ at the Methuen Memorial Music Hall on Wednesday, July 16 at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Rossler is Precentor-Organist at the Johanneskirche in Dusseldorf, Germany. She has received numerous European awards and prizes, including the 1973 Deutscher Schallplattenpreis. In 1971, she was the first foreign organist included in the public organ concerts of Radio Paris. Ms. Rossler's definitive recordings of the complete organ works of Olivier Messiaen were based on extensive study with the composer. She has performed at the festivals in England, Flanders, Stockholm and Paris; and has appeared in concerts and lectures throughout the United States and Canada.

Her recital program includes: Praeludium in E minor — Nikolaus Bruhns;

Chorale Prelude: Allein Gott in der Hoh sei Ehr', and Passacaglia and Fugue in C minor — Johann Sebastian Bach

The Towne Deli All - Stars

In baseball, one of the year's big deals is the all-star game. This is just over and the luminaries now head back to their own home teams. The spectacle of seeing an outstanding player at every position is something fans wait for eagerly every year.

In the food business, Towne Deli fields an all-star team every day providing food service par excellence. Everyone here, management, cooks and counter people, is guided by our basic CQ concept...Care and Quality plus attentive, pleasant service. That's why we have such a large following of faithful fans.

Our team is back at full strength, too. One of our best-liked stars, Eddie, is back. Eddie, like all true stars, "lifts" others working with him spurring them to errorless performance thereby providing greater enjoyment by our fans.

Come often and watch our all-stars perform. They'll see that you enjoy every morsel, whether you are having a complete dinner or one of our famous piled-high sandwiches.
